FIVE PERSONS HELD IN CAIRO BANK RAID

Three Men and Two Women
Taken Into Custody by Grady Officers.

CAIRO, Ga., Dec. 17.—(P)—Three men and two women were in custody here today in connection with the $5,300 robbery of the Cairo Banking Company last week.

Sheriff Allgood, of Grady (Calo) county, said the three men were booked as Cecil Hendrix, of Augusta; E. G. Callaway, of Birmingham; and P. T. Ragland, of Brent, Ala. The sheriff said the man booked as Ragland gave his name as Otis Carter when first arrested.

The women, he said, were booked as Mrs. C. W. Hendrix, alias Bobbie Hendrix, and Jeanette Smith. Sheriff Allgood said the Hendrix woman told him that she was Bobbie Pate, of McGee, Ark., before marriage.

The three men were held under charges of bank robbery and the women as "material witnesses," the sheriff said.

A fourth man, believed by officers to be the ringleader of the trio who held up the bank and thought to be the driver of the car that whisked them out of town, is hunted by officers.

Three young men entered the bank building Wednesday afternoon as the cashier and a woman clerk were closing for the day. They held the bank employees at bay with pistols—and then finished the job of closing the shades. A customer who came in was locked in the vault with the others and the bandits walked out a rear door with a sum estimated by bank officials at $5,300. An automobile was waiting for them at the rear.

NORTH GEORGIAN LIONS MEET AT DAHLONEGA

DAHLONEGA, Ga., Dec. 17.—The Dahlonega Lions Club was host at a meeting of representatives from Lions clubs in Zone 2, district of Georgia. Approximately 70 guests from clubs throughout northeast Georgia were present.

The program began with presentation of guests by President Robert Moore, of the Dahlonega club, after which Deputy Governor N. V. Dyer assumed the chairmanship. The welcome address was made by C. J. Dismukes, of Dahlonega, and the response was given by M. L. Allison, of LaVonia.

Five-minute talks were given by Garnet Langford, of Gainesville; W. G. Owens, of Dahlonega; Henry Rosenthal, of Athens. The North Georgia College quartet furnished special music for the occasion.

The January zone meeting was awarded to Royston and the February meeting to Gainesville.

Stray Shot Kills Girl While Riding in Auto

METTER, Ga., Dec. 17.—(P)—The source of a mysterious bullet which fatally wounded De Alva Watson, 13-year-old girl, as she was riding in an automobile with her parents Saturday, is being investigated by authorities.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Watson, the girl's parents, a sister and a brother were on their way back to their home in the Union community near here. On the outskirts of Metter, a shot was heard. De Alva screamed, and fell unconscious into the arms of her brother. A bullet had entered the right side of the girl's neck near the jugular vein. The family hastened back to Metter with the wounded girl but she died soon after reaching a doctor's office.

REQUEST TO ABANDON G. F. & A. LINE REFUSED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(P)—The interstate commerce commission today refused to permit the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company, through its receivers, to abandon operation of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama Railroad Company.

The Seaboard receivers have been endeavoring for the last year or more to get rid of all sections of the system which are not paying a profit. The Georgia, Florida and Alabama has been costing the company over $1,000,000 a year in rentals consisting of interest on bonds, preferred stock, equipment and other expenses and taxes. This was started in 1927 when the 181-mile line from Richmond, Ga., to Carrabelle, Fla., was acquired.

The receivers, it was understood, have been endeavoring to bring about a change in the contract and the commission said today that it is clear from the record that the application in this case is a result of failure of both parties to agree on terms of operation.

HOME RULE PROPOSAL RENEWED BY BURGIN

BUENA VISTA, Ga., Dec. 17.—(P)—Joe S. Burgin, who for 10 years has been fighting to give Georgia cities and counties "home rule," and who has sponsored one of Georgia's most widely-known, but never-enacted bills, is going back to the legislature next January, hopeful that the home rule plan will be adopted.

"The press and public generally have endorsed the home rule bill, which would enable the cities and counties of the state to pass their own local laws, and relieve the legislature of this burden," Burgin said.

He says local legislation, as it is now handled, is not only a burden on the state legislature, but is unsatisfactory to the local governments themselves.

"Furthermore, it is one-man legislation, and therefore undemocratic," Burgin says.

CALHOUN TRUCK CRASH IS FATAL TO TWO MEN

Second Victim of Rome Accident Dies of Injuries.

CALHOUN, Ga., Dec. 17.—Mack Hüller, of Ringgold, was instantly killed and his body almost cremated in a head-on truck collision at Paynes filling station just south of Calhoun early Monday morning. Hüller, a driver for the Delaney Fruit Company, of Chattahoochee, his companion, Johnnie Quinn, was seriously injured and was rushed to a hospital in Rome where he died this afternoon.

The other truck in the collision was said to have been driven by G. R. Black, of Knoxville, Tenn. Black was not seriously injured. Both trucks were completely demolished and the wreckage burned.

SECOND VICTIM DIES IN ROME ACCIDENT

ROME, Ga., Dec. 17.—(P)—Gordon Dowdy, 24, of Lindale, died here today, the second victim of an automobile accident near Shannon Saturday night. Howard Brinkley, 27, of Shannon, died en route to a local hospital.

FUNERAL AT DALTON
FOR CRASH VICTIM
DALTON, Ga., Dec. 17.—Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning for Mrs. Phil Stone, widely known resident in this section, leader in social, church and club work, who died Sunday afternoon in a Marietta hospital from injuries received December 6 in an automobile accident near Acworth.

Besides her husband she is survived by a daughter, Phyllis Anne; her father, W. M. Stolz; one brother, Erwin Stolz.

TWO DELIVERY BOYS, STORE ROBBED BY TRIO

Three armed negroes Monday night held up two delivery boys and a jewelry store, according to police reports.

When the trio held up Will Berry, negro delivery boy of 262 Vernon place, they robbed him of $1.80 at Morgan street and Boulevard, S. E., and a few minutes later held up and robbed Woodrow Terrell, another negro delivery boy, of 59 Hilliard street, at Rankin and Arnold streets, of $1.39, according to police reports.

J. L. Holloway, negro, operator of a jewelry store at 172 Auburn avenue, was the third victim of the trio and was held up in his store and robbed of $10 in cash, a watch, a white gold knife and an undetermined number of sets of earrings and other jewelry, Holloway reported to police.

CORBURG, Ore.—(UP)—A sea gull had a very unusual meal here and fraternized with a turkey flock at the Hugh Malpas farm, feeding with domestic birds. The locality is about 60 miles inland.

Pastor's Trousers, $75 Are Stolen at Elberton

ELBERTON, Ga., Dec. 17.—Rev. H. L. Byrd, who arrived Friday afternoon from Thomson to assume the pastorate of the First Methodist church, was visiting some time Sunday morning at a home where he took away with him the pastor's trousers and $75 he had in his pockets. No clue has been found but it is thought to be the same burglar who entered seven residences Friday night and others Sunday night.

Every residence here is now a small arsenal.

NATIONAL BEEKEEPERS OPEN VALDOSTA MEET

VALDOSTA, Ga., Dec. 17.—(P)—Speaker Ed Rivers, of the Georgia house of representatives, told the International Beekeepers conference here today that Governor Eugene Talmadge recognizes the importance of bee culture in commerce and stands ready to give the industry all possible assistance.

The Lakeland legislator characterized Talmadge "the greatest governor Georgia ever had" in his address at the opening of the sessions.

Five hundred of beekeepers from the United States and Canada, the American Honey Producers' League, Bee Shippers' federation, the Southern States Beekeeping conference and Georgia Beekeepers Association are represented at the conference.

G. G. Puett, of Habersham, president of the Georgia Beekeepers Association, opened the meeting. Valdosta extended a welcome to the delegates through Mayor James D. Ashley and J. M. Ashley, chamber of commerce secretary. Responses were made by W. E. Harrell, Hainesville, Ala., president of the Southern Beekeepers' conference and by J. W. Newton, of Baton Rouge, La., president of the American Honey Producers' League.

At the conclusion of the preliminaries, the Southern Beekeepers' conference, the American Honey Producers' League, the Bee Shippers' federation, the Southern States Beekeeping conference and Georgia Beekeepers Association are represented at the conference.

Their second objective to the 1.75 ratio for the world is, instead of that of 1914.

During the war France stopped work on her ships while she was shipping troops to Europe. The 1914 ratio, using 5 as a basis, was as follows: Great Britain 5; France and the United States 2.2; Japan 1.3 and Italy 1.1.

The French have no great objection to the new position of the United States and Japan in the naval scale, but they are not ready to give up their long-held position of superiority between Rome and Paris.

BRITAIN WILL INITIATE DISCUSSIONS WITH JAPAN

LONDON, Dec. 17.—(P)—British officials are preparing tonight to open bilateral discussions with the Japanese after the Americans leave the naval conversations, which were held last week.

United States Ambassador-at-Large Norman H. Davis told Sir John Simon the Americans would not object to British proposals for discussion through their delegations here or through diplomatic channels if there were guarantees that neither would attempt to resume conversations at the first favorable opportunity to discuss an agreement preventing a naval building race after Japan's denunciation of the Washington treaty, expected shortly.

Regarding the Anglo-Japanese talks, the British foreign secretary said his supporters wish to try to win the Japanese over to the British compromise unsuccessfully suggested many weeks ago, which only recognizes equality in principle for Japan.

The Japanese, however, hope to convince the British that they should recognize full equality, possibly through an installment plan extending over a period of years.

Opens Husband's Mail Woman Hurt by Bomb

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 17.—(P)—Two persons were injured today by the explosion of a bomb which was reported to have been mailed to them wrapped as a Christmas present.

The injured were Richard Burgess, 37, and Mrs. Lillian Williams, 38, his housekeeper.

The package was addressed to Mason Williams, a woman's husband. As he unwrapped it a terrific blast shook the house.

State Deaths And Funerals

E. J. WETZMAN—J. W. WATERS.

GLENNVILLE, Ga., Dec. 17.—(P)—Tattall county's oldest citizen, Henry Wetzman, 78, and John W. Waters, 77, died Sunday morning.

Waters was survived by his widow, two daughters and three sons. His funeral is set for this afternoon. Waters, survived by his widow, a daughter and two sons, is to be buried tomorrow.

JOHN S. COHEN VISITS PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(P)—John S. Cohen, Atlanta publisher and democratic national committeeman for Georgia, called today on President Roosevelt. The former Georgia senator described the visit as entirely social.

QUALITY THAT CANNOT BE EQUALED

We make Kellogg's Corn Flakes from the finest corn we can buy, and we make them with a care and cleanliness that any good housewife would appreciate.

For 25 years we've been making them constantly better. When you try Kellogg's Corn Flakes today, you will understand why they have grown to be the biggest-selling ready-to-eat cereal in the world. Finer flavor, more tempting crispness. Quality that no imitation can possibly equal.

Every year Kellogg's Corn Flakes put many millions of dollars into circulation in rural areas. They have created a new market for vast quantities of grain, milk, fruit and honey. For that reason, as well as because they are a delicious, wholesome, economical food, Kellogg's Corn Flakes are the favorite cereal of millions of families in town and country. When you buy corn flakes, insist on Kellogg's—the original—always the best.

MOTHERS FORGET CHILDREN DURING CHRISTMAS RUSH

AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 17.—(P)—Police Lieutenant E. E. Elliott is thinking seriously of asking the city to establish a nursery at police headquarters.

Saturday numerous children had to be entertained by the police while their lost mothers shopped for Christmas.

PARIS TO DEMAND INCREASE IN NAVY

France Wants Force Equal to Combined Italian and German Units.

PARIS, Dec. 17.—(P)—France, watching with keen interest the futile naval conversations in London, laid plans today for a new naval program far above the present 1.75 in capital ships at any conversations which may follow Japan's denunciation of the Washington treaty.

This year's report of the naval budget described bluntly as "absurd" the present 1.75 ratio to 5 for Britain and 2.2 for the United States.

It was indicated in informed quarters that the position will be challenged as completely inadequate at the first opportunity.

France wants to throw overboard the whole question of naval parity, which has embittered her relations with Italy. Deputy Jacques Stern, in his report on the naval budget, recently recalled promises made by Aristide Briand before the chamber of deputies in 1923 that France would not be bound by any automatic renewal of the Washington and London treaties.

The French want a navy equal to the combined forces of Italy and Germany. They base their claim on the fact that they have two seasons to the Atlantic and the Mediterranean, while Italy and Germany have only one apiece.

Their second objective to the 1.75 ratio for the world is, instead of that of 1914.

During the war France stopped work on her ships while she was shipping troops to Europe. The 1914 ratio, using 5 as a basis, was as follows: Great Britain 5; France and the United States 2.2; Japan 1.3 and Italy 1.1.

Georgia News Told in Brief

Petersen Accepts.

ALLEY, Ga., Dec. 17.—(P)—Congressman-elect Hugh Petersen Jr., of the first district, has accepted Governor Eugene Talmadge's invitation to represent Georgia at the twelfth annual Georgia state Sunday school service at Valley Forge, Pa., on January 27.

To Invite Governor.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 17.—(P)—Governor Eugene Talmadge will be asked to lay the cornerstone to the new state barracks under construction here at an approximate cost of $62,000. The governor will be invited by the civil service commission through the mayor.

Plane Damaged.

MACON, Ga., Dec. 17.—(P)—Returning from one of his solo practice flights yesterday afternoon, Lieutenant Commander Charles W. Robles, medical examining officer in the marine recruiting office here, seriously damaged his plane when it nosed into the ground at Miller field in landing. Robles escaped injury.

Douglas Elects Officers.

DOUGLAS, Ga., Dec. 17.—(P)—In a spirited, unanimous election in Douglas Saturday, Mayor Louie A. Pope was re-elected for a term of two years over former Councilman Rensha H. Sharp, Jr.

J. E. Crabbs was elected councilman from the city at large over F. L. Preston by a vote of 301 to 173. N. L. Klotz was elected to council from the fourth ward without opposition, succeeding W. T. Cottoingham.

Named Acting Sheriff.

WASHINGTON, Ga., Dec. 17.—G. Horace Luncford, senior deputy under the late George M. Walton, sheriff of Wilkes, whose sudden death occurred last week, has been named acting sheriff by Judge R. O. Barksdale, of the court of ordinary. A special election to name a successor to Sheriff Walton has been called for next month.

Church Officers Named.

WASHINGTON, Ga., Dec. 17.—R. H. Fisher, clerk of Wilkes superior court, heads the board of stewards of First Methodist church for the new conference year. Other officers named at the 77th annual election are M. E. Barnett, secretary; L. G. Ray, treasurer. Other members of the church board are J. H. Blackmon, T. A. Burke, K. D. Dillard, J. H. Fry, W. A. McClellan, Earl Norwood, S. E. Saage and W. E. Shelverton.

Livestock Law Indorsed.

ATHENS, Ga., Dec. 17.—The Athens Lions' Club has endorsed the program of the Savannah Kiwanis Club to obtain legislation at the next general assembly designed to keep livestock from roaming on the highways in south Georgia. Many automobile accidents have resulted from deer and cattle, pigs and other livestock to roam up and down the highways, especially at night, it is said. The proposed law would require owners to keep their livestock penned.

Many New Decorations.

ATHENS, Ga., Dec. 17.—Six hundred persons saw the model Christmas decorations at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Hubbard McElton two days last week. The exhibition was sponsored by the Ladies' Garden Club here. Mrs. McElton, president of the Georgia Garden Clubs, originated the idea of a model Christmas decorations in the state organization's campaign to save the native flora of the state. Artificial decorations were used principally.

Rome Schools Close.

ROME, Ga., Dec. 17.—Christmas holidays will begin Tuesday for Rome city schools and Thursday for Floyd county schools. County schools will begin the new term on December 31 and city schools will resume on January 2.

Enrollment is approximately 6,700 in the county and 5,100 in the city. Shorter College will close December 20 and Davidson School for Boys on December 18. Both institutions will begin the new term on January 3.

FIVE DIONNE BABIES SMILE A GREETING AS DAFOE RETURNS

CALLANDER, Ont., Dec. 17.—(P)—Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe, back from New York with a load of Christmas presents for the Dionne quintuplets, today visited the babies after an absence of two weeks and found them all "in good shape."

Nurses rushed to greet the genial doctor as he entered the North County hospital, but he went straight to his little charges, chucking over each of the almost-indistinguishable five.

"Sure they know me," he said. "Look at them laughing and smiling. It's good to be back with them again."

The physician, who arrived home last night, was suffering from a slight cold and remained in bed for the first three days of his visit. He was temperature three degrees below zero outside.

"I guess I caught cold from talking too much," he remarked, laughing, referring evidently to his interviews and lectures in the United States. "And then maybe I got it during the long train ride."

Dr. Dafoe praised the work of Dr. G. P. Hamblin, who took charge of the half-year-old quintet during the last fortnight.

Dr. Hamblin, a member of the staff of the Toronto Sick Children's hospital, said that looking after the quintuplets was a "wonderful experience."

Three of the Dionne babies gained weight during the 24-hour period ending this morning, for an aggregate increase of five ounces. Their total weight is now 58 pounds 16-1/2 ounces. Young being the leader with 12 pounds 13-1/2 ounces. The smallest is Marie, at 10 pounds 4 ounces.

JUDGEMADDOX TO OPEN LAW OFFICE IN ROME

ROME, Ga., Dec. 17.—Judge James M. Maddox, who has served as judge of the Rome circuit of superior court since 1917, will be associated with Carl Griffin, Rome attorney, in the practice of law after the expiration of Judge Maddox's present term on January 1. The new legal firm will be known as Maddox and Griffin.

Judge Maddox was appointed by Governor Clifford Walker to fill out the unexpired term of the late Judge Moses R. Wright, who was twice re-elected without opposition. He was defeated in the September democratic primary by Claude Porter.

MISS RANKIN PONDS SUIT AGAINST LEGION

Georgia Legion Members
May Face Libel Suit, Peace
Advocate Says.

ATHENS, Ga., Dec. 17.—Possibility that Miss Jeanette Rankin, Georgia representative for the National Council for the Prevention of War, may file a libel suit against officials of the Georgia American Legion who charge her with communism, and making "seditious" speeches looked today.

Miss Rankin, whose home is in Clarke county near here, prepared to go to Brenau College tonight where she will deliver the last of a scheduled series of lectures on world peace. She returns to Washington next month to lobby for peace legislation before congress.

A reply to the charges of Legionnaires, filed with Brenau officials yesterday, will probably be made by Miss Rankin tomorrow, after she reads a stenographic report of the conference in Gainesville, which she will do there.

Meanwhile, Miss Rankin has conferred with friends as to the course she should take in reference to filing a libel suit against the Legionnaires, and it is known that some of them have advised her the attack on her is "merely a tempest in a teapot."

However, the noted peace advocate resents the attacks and has not abandoned the possibility of suing them for libel.

TOUHY IS SOUGHT IN HOLDUP PROBE

Dillinger Tie-Up Hinted
as Agents Intimate
Burns Has Talked.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Tommy Touhy, fugitive leader of the broken Touhy gang, was hunted tonight as a suspected ally of Joseph Burns in the $427,000 Brooklyn armored car robbery last August.

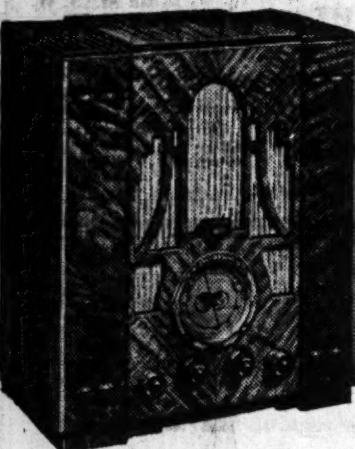

The report went out that Burns seized yesterday as a fugitive Indiana life term, had "talked" and that both he and Touhy had been identified as participants in the daring Brooklyn raid.

The spot of Dillinger machine guns sounded at the postoffice—the bullets guided by ballistic experts—as government officers tested the weapons found in Burns' flat to link him with other robberies and killings. Postal inspectors said they were satisfied Burns was "in" on the Brooklyn job and the police hinted at "important arrests" impending. Burns, too, was rumored as one of the handits who took $83,000 from the Indiana Dunes cottage.

DISTRIBUTING RAILROAD MONEY

Money put into circulation by the Central of Georgia as an employer of labor, as a purchaser of materials and supplies, and as a taxpayer is an important factor in the financial situation of this territory, particularly the states of Georgia and Alabama.

During the year about to close the railroad's payrolls amounted to approximately 7 million dollars. It has paid taxes of more than $900,000 (a part of this amount due from previous years). It has spent $109,000 for new rail and $556,000 for new freight cars; all manufactured in the State of Alabama. Its purchases for coal and other materials and supplies for the year amounted to $2,728,000. In all, the Central of Georgia is expending 15 million dollars, or at the rate of 14 millions of dollars per month, most of it in this immediate territory.

This is the record of a railway under the adverse conditions of receivership. The Central of Georgia is eager to recall furloughed employees, to buy more equipment and supplies, and thus to create additional employment, greater general business activity, and to aid recovery.

To do these things the Central of Georgia needs only more traffic. Under fair conditions of competition and regulation, state and national, the Central of Georgia will obtain that traffic.

The management takes this occasion to thank the shipping and traveling public, also its own employees, for their co-operation and support.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

H. D. POLLARD, Receiver.

Savannah, Ga., December 18, 1934.

One Independent's Gas Kept at 15-Cent Level

While Atlanta motorists were paying the advanced price of 21 cents a gallon for the gasoline purchased Monday at the stations of the major companies and 20 cents a gallon at stations of most of the independent companies operating in the city, the Spur stations throughout the day continued to retail gasoline for 15 cents.

Attendants at the Spur stations said they had not received instructions to advance the price to 20 cents in conformity with the price charged by other independent stations.

Stations of the major companies, in accordance with advance notices carried in the newspapers Sunday, sold the regular grades Monday for 21 cents a gallon, 23 cents for 40 and 20 cents for a third grade which some of the companies replaced on the market Monday at the close of the gasoline price war.

of Thomas Maloy, Chicago movie union leader, several weeks ago. Captain John Stege, who with postal officers nabbed Burns and his sister, intimated strongly that the Indiana lifer had "talked."

Stege said Dillinger's "wooden gun" escape from Crown Point jail had been solved; that the inside of the Michigan City (Ind.) penitentiary break engineered by Dillinger also was "practically cleared up." It was that prison break that let Burns loose and gave John Dillinger the nucleus of his band.

Postal inspectors only said: "We are quite certain that Burns is one of those connected with the Brooklyn job."

The statement was made despite denial from New York police that they were interested in Burns. Stege would not discuss the identity of those being sought as Burns' confederates. The only two Dillinger men still unaccounted for are John Hamilton and Joseph Fox, another of the Indiana prison fugitives. Also hunted on the same trails is Alvin Karpis, southwestern bad man.

Huey's Long List of Spite Bills Railroaded Toward Passage

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Without a flicker of dissent, the house of representatives of Louisiana tonight received Huey Long's favorably-reported special session bills, tightening his dictatorship and advancing them to position for final enactment in the house tomorrow.

The legislation increases the tax on corporations, extends the political authority of the dictator over local government and even gives his administration control over the hiring of school teachers.

A "mysterious" business session of the senate was called on at 8 o'clock, but it was promptly adjourned until tomorrow night at the same hour, when it will receive the bills from the house.

Senator Coleman Lindsey, administration leader, last night announced the session of the senate for tonight and said there might be "some business" before it, but tonight the same senator informed the presiding officer that there was "no business" and moved adjournment.

Lindsey's first announcement aroused speculation in some quarters that a report might be made tonight to the senate on Long's legislative committee investigation of the "corruption" of Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley's "old regular" politicians, the New Orleans city administration, against which many of Long's dictatorial policies are aimed in his efforts to wrest the city from Walmsley's control.

The bills drawn by Long were reported favorably from the house ways and means committee which approved them today under sketchy explanations by the senator and were placed in order for passage tomorrow under suspension of the rules.

There was no discussion of the bills in the house and not a voice was raised in opposition to the rapid progress made as the gavel hammered toward new rivets in Long's political armor.

The anti-Long minority membership in the house contended them-

LETTER REVEALS HUNGER OF FAMILY

as he watches their deprivations and knows he is powerless to help. And she ends her letter with a prayer that the God of Goodness will, perhaps, perform a miracle and save them from hunger and cold and weakness and despair.

Only One of Opportunities. That the question and her constitution one of the Ten Opportunities, selected by The Constitution this year as families in most desperate need, yet giving them the good citizenship if they can only be cared for now, until they are restored to independence.

Atlanta is responding to the Ten Opportunities appeal in a way to bring a glow of happiness, not only to the families who are, one by one, being rescued from despair, but to all of us who are having hands in the good work. Four of the ten families have now been provided for.

Monday morning a telephone call came to the writer. It was to inform him that Family Number 6 would be taken care of for the year. It will take $32 a month, but this will be provided by the Curtis Printing Company, of Ellis street, and one more responsibility is lifted from our hearts for 1935.

Five Still Untaken. There are five families as yet untaken. Five homes where we have, so far, been unable to carry the glad news that the necessary money for their essential needs has been found. Opportunities Number Three, Five, Seven, Eight and Nine. The story of Number Nine is published in the adjoining column.

When the last of the 10 is published in Wednesday's Constitution the entire story will have been told. Then, all we can do is wait and hope and pray that some others will be moved to care for them all, just as Numbers One, Two, Four and Six have already been "adopted."

Monday, in addition to the gift of the Curtis Printing Company, brought a large quota of happiness by contributions to the general fund. These gifts are from people who, while they feel they cannot adopt an Opportunity Family in full, yet want to help. So they send whatever they can afford for the general fund and from this is made up the need to care for families not sponsored in full.

Send Check to Fund. If your heart understands the urgency of this call, if you would like to make your Christmas time happier with the realization that you have done your part to help lift an unfortunate family out of the morass of poverty for another year, just write your check for whatever amount you can and mail it to H. H. Trotter, treasurer of the Ten Opportunities Fund, care of The Constitution.

UNIDENTIFIED WOMAN IN JAIL AT JONESBORO

Aid in identifying a white woman held in jail at Jonesboro on a burglary charge was asked Monday night by Sheriff E. L. Adamson, of Clayton county.

The sheriff said the woman is violent and insane and is unable to tell her name or her address. She has been seen frequently lately between College Park and Jonesboro and was arrested Thursday when she went into the home of Mrs. Janet Malcolm, of Forrest Park, dressed herself in Mrs. Malcolm's clothes and took her pocketbook.

She was described as being of medium build, about 35 years of age, with gray hair and gray eyes. The sheriff said the burglary charge will be dropped but that she must be identified before she can be sent to the state hospital at Milledgeville. Information concerning the woman should be communicated to the sheriff at Jonesboro.

ATLANTA LODGE NO. 59 ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Charles M. Brown has been elected master of the Atlanta Lodge No. 59, F. & A. M. It was announced Monday by the secretary of the lodge. The other officers elected were: A. B. Foster, senior warden; B. O. Bloodworth, junior warden; George Greeno, treasurer; Robert W. Standridge, secretary; W. E. Carnes, chaplain; N. W. Warren, senior deacon; Ellis F. McClelland, junior deacon; C. B. Falls, senior steward; S. C. Nash, junior steward; J. A. Lacey, tyler; and L. P. Johnson was appointed organist.

The officers were installed by the most worshipful grand master, Judge E. D. Thomas. He was assisted by R. N. Fickett Jr. and Judge Jesse Wood.

DUPONTS APPROVE WAR PROFITS CURB

Bonus Allowances To Spur Work, Encourage Invention Urged, However.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(AP)—With some qualifications, members of the duPont family today approved a war department plan to limit the profits of war-time contractors to 6 per cent of their investment.

Both Irene and Pierre duPont told the senate munitions committee they thought the scheme a good one. They suggested, however, that allowance should be made for bonuses paid by the contractors to speed up work and encourage invention.

The famous Delaware munitions manufacturers were asked for their opinions by Chairman Nye, after the committee had received the outline of elaborate war department preparations to mobilize 12,000 privately owned firms quickly into a vast war supplies network.

Blank contracts—not including the cost-plus type which aroused so much criticism in the World War—have been drawn up. Legislation is ready for congressional consideration immediately upon a declaration of war and the whole is subject to constant modernizing revision.

Two Contract Types. Lieutenant Colonel C. T. Harris, of the war department, testified that the contracts are of two types, one stipulating a fixed price and the other of an "adjusted compensation" character, involving the 6 per cent limitation. This, he said, had been approved by the department.

"It seems to me," said Irene duPont, in response to Nye's question, "that fixing a definite percentage would eliminate the embarrassment of trusteeship to the stockholders and let the directors out."

"It would take away a great deal of the feeling that some were being better treated than others. The war department is doing a grand job of figuring out in advance how to go about this thing in time of war."

Pierre duPont agreed in general, but raised the question of bonuses. The company, he said, found that the money invested in bonuses during the war yielded the best return, in encouraging invention, economies and providing an incentive for rapid output.

"It works so well in industry that it ought not to be passed over lightly."

Old Hickory Andit. These developments followed disclosures on the basis of which committee members contended that the duPont account for the construction of the Old Hickory power plant in Tennessee during the war, involving government expenditures of $125,000,000, received "only a 10 per cent audit."

In addition, a young marine officer, Lieutenant Richard Cutts Jr., who testified he was "a White House aide" over a period "roughly from March, 1933, to September, 1934," was named as engaging in munitions sales efforts while on the active roll of that service.

Cutts made clear that his work at the White House was confined to "social duties only," and at the executive mansion it was said that he had never been actually stationed there, but had merely been an aide to the president and certain social functions.

them with school work and takes active part in their plans and games. Her presence with them is invaluable in character building.

But the home is in danger. So far there hasn't been enough income from the chickens and garden to provide proper food and clothing for them all. And, unless outside help is provided for the coming year, it is inevitable that the little home will have to be broken up and places in some institutions found for the children.

Careful analysis of the need shows this family must have $32 a month during 1935 if they are to continue together, with bare essentials of healthy living.

This is Opportunity Number Nine, a grand chance for someone, or some group, to hold together a home with all the ingredients of ideal happiness and good citizenship.

FLU ADDS TO HOLIDAY AT SOUTH CAROLINA U.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 17.—(AP) Dr. L. T. Baker, president of the University of South Carolina, authorized Christmas holidays to begin at 5 p. m. today instead of Wednesday as originally scheduled because of an outbreak of influenza.

Dr. Baker said there was an increasing number of cases of mild influenza on the campus.

Hull and Diplomats Weigh Debts, Other Foreign Issues

Envoys to Eleven Nations Discuss Problems in Series of Round-Table Conferences.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Serious world problems affecting the United States today were the subject of a progressive series of round-table discussions that, all in all, will collect the views of ambassadors and ministers to 11 important countries.

Special problems, including Japan's denunciation of the Washington arms treaty, failure of the major debtor countries to meet war-time obligations and the tangled European political and economic situations are being come over by the envoys with Secretary Hull.

The conferences with the secretary of state, Undersecretary Phillips and other officials, which have been in progress for several days, will continue over the Christmas holidays.

Already opinions have been voiced by William C. Bullitt, ambassador to Soviet Russia; Breckinridge Long, ambassador to Italy; Nelson T. Johnson, minister to China; Hugh R. Wilson, minister to Switzerland; Greenville T. Emmett, minister to the Netherlands; and Ralph J. Tamm, minister to South Africa. All are now in the capital.

Shortly, Robert W. Bingham, ambassador to England; William E. Dodd, ambassador to Germany; and Alexander W. Weddell, ambassador to Argentina, will return to give first-hand information on questions facing the governments of those countries. Hugh S. Gibson, ambassador to Brazil, and Hal H. Sevier, ambassador to Chile, have concluded their reports and departed.

Many lesser diplomatic and trade officials, returning on "Christmas leave," also have participated in discussions.

From the talks some officials expect several important future diplomatic moves, the ironing out of questions and problems of immediate and long-range interest, and—for the president's and Hull's benefit—a comprehensive world-wide digest of affairs.

Outstanding questions discussed include:

SOVIET RUSSIA: Economic and political progress; diplomatic relations with Japan; settlement of its American indebtedness and expansion of trade with this country.

ITALY: Information on Mussolini's views concerning a solution of the European situation; negotiation of a new reciprocal trade agreement.

CHINA: Reaction of Japan's assumption of leadership in far eastern affairs; representations against effect of American silver purchasing policy; sovereignty of Manchukuo.

SWITZERLAND: Negotiation of a new reciprocal trade agreement.

NETHERLANDS: Negotiations of a new trade agreement for American trade in East Indies where the Japanese are making a drive for increased trade.

ARGENTINA: Participation of the United States and Latin American republics in League of Nations to bring peace between Bolivia and Paraguay.

GREAT BRITAIN: Possible close co-operation in naval affairs in the aftermath of Japan's denunciation of the Washington naval treaty; long-range view of settlement of World War obligations.

GERMANY: Discrimination against American holders of reich bonds. Overtures for better deals and governmental debts to the United States.

BRAZIL: Trade expansion plans and exchange of regulations freeing American capital.

CHILE: Negotiation of new trade agreement and collaboration in ending the long and bitter Chaco war.

ALMAND TO INTRODUCE COUNTY MERGER BILL

Representative-elect Bond Almand of Fulton county, said Monday he would introduce a bill in the January general assembly to amend the constitution, cutting down the number of counties in the state.

The measure, he said, would provide for the consolidation and merger of some counties to a number of not more than 100. There are now 139 counties in the state.

As to other questions, he said he considered the most important issues facing the next session as those of taxation and education.

"I will support those bills that have for their purpose the relieving of owners of real and personal property of excessive taxes, and the making of education up to high school grades a function, and the placing of liability for such support on the state," he added.

The legislator said he likewise planned proposed legislation for an automobile driver's license, and other bills to establish state patrol; to make the kidnapping for ransom punishable by life imprisonment; to reform procedure and practice of criminal law; to define more clearly the acts of treason against the state; and to provide for the incorporation of the bar and the regulation of admission to the practice of law.

Almand, a native of Lithuania, Ga., in DeKalb county, who is entering his first public office, expressed approval of the Talmadge program. As for the future automobile license tag, he said he would be favored maximum fee of $3 on private passenger cars and trucks not to exceed one and one-half tons, where not used for private gain, and a graduated license fee on trucks and buses used for public hire.

MEDICAL SOCIETY WILL REINSTATE DR. FRED ALBEE

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The Medical Society of the County of New York has passed a resolution, effective January 1, 1935, reinstating Dr. Fred H. Albee, surgeon of New York and Venice, Fla., and Dr. P. Stryker, attorney for Dr. Albee, announced today.

Stryker further announced that the action by the society had taken the dispute out of the courts. Litigation began after the society suspended Dr. Albee from its membership on the ground that he had consented to advertising circulated by the Seaboard Airline railway, which concerned his sanatorium at Venice, Fla.

Dr. Albee was exonerated of the accusation of unethical advertising in his supreme court contest seeking reinstatement. The court upheld his defense that he was not responsible, in fact, had not known of the railroad's advertisements before they were circulated.

CENTRAL ROAD REVISES 'SOUTHLAND' SCHEDULE

T. J. Stewart, division passenger agent of the Central of Georgia railway, announced Monday that the schedule of the "Southland" has been changed. Hereafter the train will leave Atlanta at 9:05 o'clock at night instead of 8:50 o'clock. This train travels direct to Tampa via the west coast of Florida.

A new service down the east coast was also announced. It will leave Atlanta at 8:50 o'clock at night. The north bound train on this route will leave Tampa at 6 o'clock at night. The Dixie Flyer and the Flamingo-Dixie Express will continue on the same schedules.

HEARING POSTPONED IN VANDERBILT FIGHT

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Hearing on appeal of George W. Wickes and Thomas B. Gilchrist, co-guardians of little Gloria Vanderbilt's $3,500,000 estate, to have vacated supreme court Justice John F. Carey's order making them parties to the Vanderbilt-Whitney custody fight over the child heiress was adjourned today until May 1.

Supreme Court Justice Louis A. Valentine postponed the hearing because an appeal from the order by Gloria's mother, Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt, is now pending before the appellate division.

COUNTY ATTACKED IN BEASLEY DEATH

Negligence Is Charged in Case of Tower Inmate
Fatally Scalded.

Relatives of Wilbur F. Beasley, 27, of 439 Boulevard, S. E., who died Saturday at Grady hospital as the result of burns received December 9 while taking a shower bath at Fulton tower, where he had been confined since August on a lunacy writ, Monday charged that the county had been negligent in the care of Beasley and were considering making a request of the grand jury for an investigation.

Dr. J. C. Blacklock, Fulton county physician, said Monday night that Beasley had been given the same attention at the tower he would have received at a hospital and that he showed signs of improvement daily until Thursday, when his condition suddenly changed for the worse. Dr. Blacklock said that from the day Beasley was scalded he attended him with the interest and care any private physician would give a patient.

Dr. Blacklock stated that Beasley was given daily shower baths by two negro attendants and that on the day he was fatally scalded he knocked down his attendants, jumped into the shower bath and turned the spigot, showering himself with scalding water. He said Beasley was burned on the chest, stomach, shoulders and back and even on the scalp. He would more than 15 pounds of burn ointment was used in treating Beasley.

Dr. Blacklock said he attributed Beasley's death to his mental condition, the burns being a contributing cause. When Beasley's condition became critical late Saturday afternoon, he was sent to Grady hospital where he died about 9 o'clock Saturday night.

W. L. Beasley, of 439 Boulevard, S. E., Beasley's father, stated Monday that he had not been notified of his son's condition until a week after he had been scalded.

His son, Mr. Beasley stated, lost his mind a year ago and the latter part of August was picked up by the police when he appeared on the streets improperly clad. He was placed in the tower while his father arranged for a lunacy hearing and his transfer to the state hospital at Milledgeville. At the time, he said, there was no room available at the Milledgeville institution. The lunacy trial was held December 12, and after the trial Mr. Beasley said he went to the tower to convey the message to his son that he would soon leave for Milledgeville. It was then, he said, that he discovered his son had been seriously scalded.

He said Dr. Blacklock informed him the burns were not bad enough to send him to Grady hospital. Dr. Blacklock explained to the press that it was "unsafe to send him to a hospital at that time."

Mr. Beasley said he went to visit his son Saturday and found him in a dying condition, and after telling Dr. Blacklock that he injured man should be taken to Grady, he said, Dr. Blacklock summoned an ambulance and he was transferred to the hospital.

First and second-degree burns were given as the cause of Beasley's death on the death certificate at Grady hospital.

PREMONITION OF DEATH BY RECLUSE REVEALED

Miss Elizabeth Trice, 82-year-old recluse, who was burned to death early Friday in a fire at her home, 113 Alexander street, N. W., and whose will was filed for probate Monday in the Fulton county ordinary's court, the major bequests having been reported in The Constitution Sunday, had a premonition of death, she revealed a few days before the tragedy to City Tax Assessor J. C. Little.

When she returned her city taxes she told Mr. Little: "Something may happen to me. If it does, you will find the money for my taxes in my safety deposit box."

She gave in her estate as $70,000 in notes, $9,000 in cash and $2,275 in real estate, Mr. Little said.

The will, dated November 8, 1920, leaves the entire estate to various churches and institutions of the Seventh Day Adventist faith, as was reported in Sunday's Constitution.

Convict Gets Dynamite To Celebrate Christmas

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Police officers were puzzled last night as they pondered over the discovery of two sticks of dynamite and detonating caps which they say Earle Farris, a prisoner, boasted of smuggling into the city stockade for the purpose of observing Christmas "with plenty of noise."

Chief R. E. Noel called a conference of guards and prisoners for this afternoon in an attempt to shed light on the mystery of how Farris was able to proceed as far as he did with his plan.

According to police, Farris disclaimed any intention of blowing up the stockade, stating that he was going to throw the dynamite outside after connecting the detonating caps with an electric light socket.

Three robberies in Atlanta and one in Ben Hill in which the thieves obtained more than $2,200 in their week-end activities were discovered Monday morning.

Police Monday night were searching for two men who early Sunday, according to police reports, climbed out of the window of their room at the Exchange hotel, Marietta and Broad streets, to the roof of the Fox market, 20 Broad street. The men, according to the police, entered the market through a trap door in the roof, made their way to the first floor, blew the safe after removing it to the basement and escaped with $1,400.

Acting on a tip, Detectives H. W. Armstrong and A. E. Davis stationed themselves at the mouth of an alley in the rear of Gay Clothing Company store at 120 Whitehall street at 2 o'clock Sunday morning, and arrested a man who gave his name as J. H. Stanley, 28, of a Tudor street address, as he walked down the alley.

Investigations by the detectives disclosed that the safe of the clothing store had been cracked and approximately $300 in cash and $174 in city scrip taken. When arrested, according to the detectives, Stanley had $475 in his possession, which they explained, consisted of $300 in cash and $174 in city scrip.

Held at police headquarters on "suspicion" Stanley Monday night denied any knowledge of the robbery of the clothing store.

Thieves who had lowered themselves through a smashed skylight into the combination postoffice and store of Charles Zuber, at Ben Hill, Sunday night and blew the safe, escaping with approximately $200 and some postage stamps.

Entering the office of Sharp & Dolme, wholesale drug concern at 81 Walton street, by escape, cracksmen opened the safe by working the combination on the outer door and forcing the inner door open with a sawed-off and escaped with $170 in cash. Narcotics stored in the safe were untouched, it was reported.

Failing to crack the safe at the Georgia Feed Company, 265 Peters street, when the charge of nitroglycerin was not powerful enough, the cracksmen took a quantity of cigars and other merchandise, according to police reports.

Alabama Bank Raid
NETS LOOT OF $15,000

SELACAUCA, Ala., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Two bandits, their faces striped with adhesive plaster as masks, this morning held up the City National Bank of Selacauca and obtained approximately $15,000, but in their haste got only about half of a pile of currency lying on the counter.

Burlesque Director Ill,
But Troupers Carry On

Members of the burlesque cast at the Atlanta theater this week prove themselves real "trouper," in that they put on a good peppy show despite the fact that Paul Morokoff, their director, was stricken with pneumonia before rehearsals could be completed on this week's bill. They have carried on without him, rehearsing on instructions sent from the sick room.

Peggy Phillips, of the smooth voice, is back, and Jimmy Murray is a new straight man. The comedians are maintaining their usual standard, and the Elderberry Boys, guitar and banjo artists, are added features of worth. The strip acts as usual take the show.

AAA Plan of Corn-Hog Production Control Outlined to Farm Leaders at Meeting Here

Corn-hog control campaign workers gathered in Atlanta Monday from nine southern states for instructions. At the conference above, left to right, are R. H. Rogers and J. L. Reed, AAA workers from Washington; Harry L. Brown, director of the Georgia extension service; C. L. Hill, of Baton Rouge, La., and Fred A. Colby, of Knoxville, Tenn. Associated Press photo.

Agricultural leaders from nine southern states came here Monday for a two-day training course in which they were to learn details of the agricultural adjustment administration's corn-hog production control program for 1935. The meeting is being held at the Henry Grady hotel, and the session this morning will start at 9 o'clock.

Simultaneous regional meetings are being held in Indianapolis and Kansas City, Mo. Other courses will be given Thursday and Friday in New York city, Minneapolis and Salt Lake city.

The 1935 program, its leaders say, "will enable the industry to hold ground gained during the past year." It "will help farmers to correct maladjustments caused by the drought and yet will prevent return to excessive production levels."

Under the terms of the production contracts to be signed for 1935, producers will be asked to market 90 per cent of the 1934-35 average base. R. H. Rogers, of the production planning division of the AAA, who is here as one of the instructors in the training school, said he expects even more contracts to be signed next year than were in 1934. Most of the contracts should be executed by the middle of February, he said.

Those attending the school here will direct producers' meetings in their respective states and arrange for county and district meetings within the various states.

Official conducting the meeting here are Rogers, J. L. Reed and D. S. De Hain, of the AAA corn-hog section, and C. L. Chambers, district representative of the department of agriculture's extension service.

Rogers said 45,007 contracts were signed this year, 23,568 of them by Tennessee producers. In a referendum held in October, 88 per cent of the contract-signers voting expressed themselves as favoring continuance of control.

States represented are Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia.

HIGH COURT TO PASS ON RAIL PENSION ACT

Administration Plans To Submit New Legislation at New Congress Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The supreme court, in a day devoted almost entirely to railroad matters, today agreed to rule on the constitutionality of the New Deal's controversial railroad pension bill.

In consenting to pass on the act, which the administration already is planning to introduce in the coming congress, the court indicated it would hear oral argument only after returning from its three-week Christmas holiday recess.

The rail pension measure was attacked by the American Railway Association and was held unconstitutional by the District of Columbia supreme court.

The government, anxious for a quick decision both in the hope of putting the act into effect and of revising conceded rough spots, wants an early showdown. It asked the supreme court to pass on it directly without waiting for a test in the appeals court.

All railroads and their 1,000,000 employees are involved. The act was rushed through the last congress in its final days. It imposes levies on the carriers and employees to create a retirement fund and provides workers must retire at 65 years of age or after 30 years of service, unless agreements are made in individual cases to delay retirement.

Pending the outcome the railroad retirement board is prohibited from putting it into effect.

LABOR PROVIDERS DENIED
RIGHTS OF PRIORITY

The supreme court refused also to interfere with the decision of lower courts that those who furnish labor and material for bridge improvements are entitled to priority over holders of mortgages in settling the affairs of railroads in receivership.

ARKANSAS BOND LAW
TO BE GIVEN REVIEW
A ruling on the validity of the 1933

act of the Arkansas legislature amending the law to enforce the collection of assessments on property owners bonds issued by improvement districts was promised today by the supreme court.

The court agreed to review the decision of the Arkansas supreme court holding the legislation valid.

HOBO 'JUNGLES' ALARMING FERA

Transients Barred From Florida Creating 'Acute Situation' in Georgia.

As the state of Florida's border patrol re-echoes Governor Dave Whitcomb's memorable pronouncement of a few weeks ago, "they shall not pass," the hordes of hobos who annually migrate to Florida for the winter months are clustering in the "jungles" along the Georgia side of the state line, causing what local officials are calling a "dreaded nuisance" and what FERA officials are terming an "acute situation."

Governor Sholtz calls the unwelcome visitors "broken tourists," the south Georgia police call them "bums" and "goats," and the FERA calls them "transients" and is showing considerable alarm over the situation from which reports indicate that "jungles," which the FERA sought to eliminate by setting up transient camps, have sprung up around Waycross, Albany, Valdosta and other south Georgia cities since Governor Sholtz issued orders not to let "broken tourists" enter his state.

It is impossible, says the FERA, for the Georgia camps at Savannah, Commerce and Fulton county, for whites, and at Fort Benning for negroes, to care for this enormous increase without additional federal appropriation. According to relief officials, efforts will be made to get all transients back to their homes at government expense.

Mayor Herbert Smart and officers in charge of the camps have communicated with Miss Gay B. Shepperson, state administrator, after closing the transient office there when the influx overran local facilities. The office reopened Monday, although Miss Shepperson advised that no additional funds were available.

Since the announcement two weeks ago by Governor Sholtz that no additional transients would be allowed in Florida during the winter unless they could show visible means of support, the situation in Georgia has grown steadily worse. Florida's governor says that there are already 11,000 persons, 9,000 of whom are from out of the state, in two camps. He further announced that all transients found within the state outside the camps would be promptly jailed as vagrants, asking Governor Sholtz to co-operate in making this known.

"If Governor Sholtz would arrest at least half of the 11,000 in his camps he would be better off," Governor Talmadge commented.

The normal capacity of Georgia's four camps is 350, including the new one recently established at North Side park in Fulton county, expected to take care of 100. At present there are 7,500 transients registered in the state, requiring an appropriation of $31,000 for December.

The "jungles" along the Georgia side of the state line are reported to be overcrowded with penniless hobos and their families who have migrated south to escape the severity of winter under destitute conditions. Although Governor Sholtz's border patrol has refused them admission into the state, they are encamped along the line in the hope that Florida's edict may be rescinded or that they may manage to sneak across unobserved.

28 More Terrorists Executed by Soviet

KIEV, U. S. S. R., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Twenty-eight out of 37 counter-revolutionaries arrested in the Ukraine for plotting terrorist acts, were sentenced to death and immediately shot today. The cases of nine others were continued for investigation.

A Soviet official said the alleged terrorists entered the U. S. S. R. from Rumania and Poland, carrying revolvers and bombs.

The executions brought the total number of death sentences for plotting terrorism to 103 since the assassination of Sergei Kiroff at Leningrad December 1.

PROBERS ASSAIL 'RIGHTEOUS' BANKS FOR CREDIT POLICY

and renew sound working capital loans to offset a pressure for liquidation of existing bank loans attributed to "a determination on the part of bankers to avoid a recurrence of errors which are thought to have brought on the recent wave of bank failures" and to "the attitude of bank examiners, both state and national."

Local Offices Urged. Assuming adoption of a more liberalized lending standard and the unification of direct government lending efforts in a single agency, the report recommended that "local offices be maintained in or near all cities of over 50,000 population or more to assist would-be borrowers in preparing applications."

"Many examiners," the report said, "have been pressing the banks to secure drastic curtailment of loans classified as 'slow' pretty much regardless of the quality of the security and this attitude seems to have the approval of many bankers."

"The situation is made worse by the fact that some, though apparently not very many, bankers have the idea that in order to qualify as a good commercial loan, not only must the transaction be a self-liquidating one, but the liquidation must occur within some arbitrary time limit."

"This wave of 'righteousness' among the banks and the bank examiners accounts for a very large proportion of the current discontent over the unavailability of bank credit."

2-DAY TRAINING FLIGHT IS STARTED BY MACON

SUNNYVALE, Cal., Dec. 17.—(AP)—The navy dirigible Macon took off from her home base here at 6:35 a. m. (Pacific standard time) today for a two-day training flight.

After participating in an air show commemorative of the first airplane flight, the Macon will escort the battle fleet through the Golden Gate, but will not accompany the fleet on maneuvers.

SAFETY LEADERS SPEAK HERE TODAY

FERA Officials, Mayor Key Will Address Rally This Afternoon.

Problems of safety which confront supervisors of the federal emergency relief administration will be discussed this afternoon at a safety rally at Taft hall at which W. O. Wheary, national safety director of the FERA, will be the principal speaker.

Mayor James L. Key, Miss Gay B. Shepperson, state FERA administrator, Keller Melton, state safety director, and others also will speak at the conference which begins at 4:30 o'clock.

"Georgia stands high in its record of safety in comparison with other states," Director Wheary said Monday night shortly after his arrival from his headquarters in Washington, D. C. He will check up on the figures of the safety programs carried on by the Georgia division of the FERA before he returns Wednesday.

The traffic situation in Atlanta was discussed Monday night by Mr. Wheary with a group of Atlantans which included Melton, Mayor Pro Tem Frank Reynolds, Councilman William G. Hastings, District Street Supervisor Walter B. Crew, and Kirk Hancock, Georgia safety director of the Atlanta Motor Club.

Among others who will speak at the rally this afternoon are DeFord Smith, FERA traffic survey director; Miss Grace Hartley, Fulton county home economist; Miss Gary Simmer, relief administrator in DeKalb county; Miss Ada Barker, relief administrator for Fulton county, and R. L. McDougall, state FERA engineer.

Director Wheary is scheduled to discuss with Governor Talmadge the proposed uniform state driver's license law which has been recommended for Georgia, and he will take under consideration the figures compiled by the four traffic surveys conducted by the government agency in Atlanta, Augusta, Macon and Savannah.

"The southeast is leading other sections of the nation in safety records," Wheary said, "and this state is well up in the list. The safety has been maintained among FERA workers and the proportion of injuries to the number of man-hours is comparatively small."

"I congratulate State Director Melton for the remarkable record made in November, when there were no loss of time injuries in the state for the period of a week," he asserted.

Director Wheary has a number of plans for reduction of traffic accidents and he is anxious for city council to act favorably upon the recommendations made in Atlanta by the FERA traffic engineers in the recent survey.

Approximately $40,000 was spent by the government accumulating the figures from which the recommendations for traffic regulations were made.

ADMINISTRATION REJECTS APPEAL TO BACK TVA TEST

declared the industry on its part would seek to eliminate any "improper practices" utilized by members of the business.

In challenging the legality of the Tennessee Valley Authority, attacked last month in an opinion written by Newton D. Baker and James M. Beck at the instance of the Edison Institute, he said:

"I respectfully urge that the parties interested in the government unit in taking such proceedings as will bring about a decision of the highest court in the land at the earliest possible moment."

At the outset of his statement, McCarter told the president "I do not come in any spirit of antagonism, but I am filled with anxiety over the grave crisis which now confronts the industry."

Electric Rate Issue. In questioning the Roosevelt power philosophies, McCarter spoke at length of electric rates. The government has announced one of its aims is the reduction of consumer costs.

Citing the contention that with government aid or operation, power with low taxes or none at all, power could be given to consumers at a lower cost, McCarter asked the president:

"Suppose all this to be true. Is it fair? Is it just to existing investment? Is it in keeping with the declared policy of the national recovery act to prevent unfair competition? Is it in the spirit of American fair play?"

The industry, he said, pays a tax bill—federal, state, and local—of about $25,000,000 out of a gross revenue of $1,800,000,000, or around 15 per cent.

Declaring the electric bill of the average family "does not exceed 2 per cent of the budget," he said, "it would seem to me that in the face of these facts the so-called 'power issue' has been unjustly magnified."

Turning then to the Tennessee Valley question, he said:

"For a considerable period of time I have been unable to shake off the conviction that the plans of the government, as typified, for example, in the Tennessee Valley Authority experiment, were an infringement upon the sovereign rights of the states concerned."

"I assume that there is no one more interested than the government in having finally settled as soon as possible the constitutionality or legality of projects upon which it is proposed to spend hundreds of millions of dollars, and to the legality of which such a doubt exists."

"I respectfully urge that the parties interested and the government unite in taking such proceedings as will bring about a decision of the highest court in the land upon the question at the earliest moment possible."

WILKIE TAKES ISSUE WITH LILIENTHAL'S VIEWS BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 17.—(AP)—W. L. Wilkie, president of Commonwealth & Southern Corporation, today took issue with David E. Lilienthal, power director of the Tennessee Valley Authority, concerning the employment of engineers to appraise the property of the Alabama Power Company in north Alabama.

Lilienthal, in Knoxville, released correspondence concerning the employment of the appraisers, which he interpreted was a different viewpoint from that contained in Wilkie's statement last week.

Wilkie tonight said he hesitated to reply to Lilienthal "because it is a tempest in a teapot," adding:

"The Chemical Bank & Trust Co. requested an independent appraisal. Prior to its request, the Guaranty Trust Company had requested us to recommend an engineer, which it could select, or to select the same situation was true of the Chemical Bank & Trust Co."

"Apparently Mr. Dawley, assistant secretary of the Commonwealth & Southern Corporation, advised the Chemical bank that the name of Mr. Jones, of Ford, Bacon & Davis, had been submitted to the Guaranty Trust Company."

Wilkie said selections of an appraiser was "entirely within the power and control" of the Chemical Bank & Trust Co.

In an earlier statement, Wilkie had taken issue with Dr. Arthur E. Morgan, chairman of TVA, on seeking industries to locate in Alabama, referring to "political pressure" on TVA.

"The Alabama Power Company (subsidiary of Commonwealth & Southern)" said the statement, "is free from such outside political pressure, and interested only in the welfare of Alabama, intends to continue its aggressive policy of seeking removal of industries to the state."

Dr. Morgan had said the TVA would not seek the removal of industries in other sections to the Tennessee valley.

LETTERS ARE DISCLOSED ON PROPERTY APPRAISED KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 17.—(AP)—David E. Lilienthal, power director of the Tennessee Valley Authority, today released letters which he said revealed that the Commonwealth & Southern Corporation and the Alabama Power Company, one of its subsidiaries, suggested the employment of the engineering firm of Ford, Bacon & Davis, of New York, to appraise properties sought by the TVA in north Alabama.

The TVA directors said contents of the letter were made known to refute a statement by Wendell L. M. Wilkie, president of the Com-

ROOSEVELT PLANS BUILDING PROGRAM

Multi-Billioned Long-Range Plan To Be Presented to Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(AP)—With members of his cabinet divided over the amount that should be spent, President Roosevelt worked today at a multi-billion long-range program of public works to be sent to congress early in January.

Before him was a report from his national resources board, mentioning a possible hundred-million-dollar expenditure of the next two decades. It opened up broad new fields of public works and outlined suggestions for a multiplicity of activities.

Not only the cabinet, but members of congress were divided over the extent to which the program should be carried out. Some senators and house members thought it proposed too little. Others regarded it as too broad.

How high the figure for the year's public works will run remained a matter of conjecture. The lowest one mentioned by responsible officials, who declined to be quoted by name until the president spoke, was $4,000,000,000.

Belief Administrator Hopkins and Secretary Ickes wanted more than that. Secretary Hoper said that the president spoke, "was $4,000,000,000."

"Whether $5,000,000,000 a year for roads, parks, sewers, public libraries, forests, waterways, good housing and countless other such facilities is more than we should spend is a problem which we will have to solve in the light of future developments touching the aggregate national income, public finances, modes and combating unemployment, popular demands for pleasures and protection afforded by public works."

There appeared no doubt whatever in informed quarters that whatever the figure suggested, or the projects decided upon, Mr. Roosevelt will press for a bulky public works fund in the coming congress.

MANAGER OF THEATER LOSES $48 TO BANDITS Shortly after he had locked up the theater for the night and started home, C. L. King, of 575 Boulevard, S. E., assistant manager of the Bankhead theater, was held up and robbed of $48 by two white men.

King reported to police that the two men drove up beside him in an automobile and one of them got out of the car and held a pistol on him while he robbed him. The money, he said, was his personal property.

MISS ALICE M'CAULEY DIES AT SPROTT, ALA. Miss Alice M'Cauley, who was formerly a resident of Atlanta and a member of a well-known southern family, died Sunday at the home of her niece, Mrs. G. E. Waters, of Sprott, Alabama.

She was a native of Alabama, but she resided for many years in Atlanta and was active in the work of the Methodist church here. Another niece, Mrs. Charles R. Robinson, of Penn. avenue, died several weeks ago while helping to nurse Miss M'Cauley. The funeral will be held this morning at Marion, Ala., where she was born.

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—(UP)—It looks like a merry Christmas for California. Forestry officials here reported that three times the available Christmas tree stock in national forests has been applied for by distributors.

RETRIAL ORDERED FOR VETERANIAN OUSTED BY ADAMS

The supreme court held that the allegation entitled Dr. Sutton to injunctive relief if true and remanded the case in order that he might be given an opportunity to prove the charge.

New Steps Planned. At his home in Sylvester, Dr. Sutton said he planned to come to Atlanta today and may new steps in the litigation.

Attorney Lindsey, in commenting on the safety angle of the case, said that he planned to sue the bondsmen of Commissioner Adams, asserting that "if Adams has spent all his funds it is up to his bondsmen to make good the salary due Dr. Sutton."

It appeared that if a rehearing is not granted Sutton will have to file two actions. One seeking to get his job back and another to get his pay. The former would have to be filed against Linder and the latter against Adams or his bondsmen.

The Sutton-Adams row has been flaring for nearly a year. It started when Adams dropped Sutton from the payroll at the instigation of Governor Talmadge despite the fact that Dr. Sutton was named state veterinarian in the reorganization act of 1931 for a term to expire January 1, 1935.

MRS. HERBERT MASON PASSES AT HOSPITAL Mrs. Herbert J. Mason, 49, well-known Atlanta woman, died Monday night at a private hospital after an extended illness.

She was born and educated in Atlanta and had lived here all her life. The former Miss Zelah Owsen McGee, she resided for many years at 543 Hopkins street and was a member of the Central Baptist church.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Zelah Mason, two sons, Richard T. and Harry L. Browne; her mother, Mrs. J. C. McGee; a brother, R. F. McGee; and two sisters, Mrs. R. C. Fuller and Mrs. Fred Sheats, who are owners of the McGee-Fuller beauty salon at 1121-2 Forsyth street. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Harry G. Boole.

SIR OSWALD MOSLEY FACES RIOT CHARGES LEWES, England, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Trim-mustached Sir Oswald Mosley, the blackshirt fascist leader of Britain, was forced to defend himself in court today against charges of riotous assemblies which might send him to jail if he were convicted.

Witnesses in a courtroom packed with men and armed women testified he used both fists and voice in laying into the opposition at a fascist meeting in Worthing October 3.

Passersby Reap Harvest As Whisky Car Crashes Witnesses who witnessed the collision at Glen Iris drive and Highland avenue Monday night when the automobile driven by Sam N. Hirsch, of 1274 Ponce de Leon avenue, N. E., was struck by an automobile driven by an unknown person who fled from the scene of the accident, were able to gather up several pints of whisky before police arrived, according to police reports.

The whisky, which was jarred from the automobile when it hit the Hirsch car, was eagerly consumed by those who gathered at the scene of the accident; the police being able to find only one pint, which will be used as evidence.

Mr. Hirsch was shaken and bruised but did not go to a hospital, according to the report.

TENSITY IN SAAR ECHOED IN BERLIN

German Newspapers Play Knox's Comments on Mobbing of Briton.

By the Associated Press. European trouble-spotters were keeping alert right today over the tense situation caused by the mobbing of a British police officer, Captain James Justice, in the Saar basin territory.

SAARBUECKEN.—Colonel G. G. Knox, head of the Saar governing body, turned the matter over to the courts for investigation as a case Saar populace manifested keen resentment against foreigners in civil police jobs.

BERLIN.—German newspapers burst out angrily with charges that Colonel Knox had "confused the issue" in his report, and called the whole thing a "boasting carousal." A complete investigation was demanded.

LONDON.—Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, told the house of commons there were not likely to be serious political consequences over the "extremely regrettable" incident. It was pointed out that Justice was recruited in the Saar and the British government had nothing to do with his presence there.

TO BE DECIDED IN COURT SAARBUECKEN.—The tense situation growing out of the mobbing of a British police captain and the wounding of a Saarite may wind up in the law courts.

The incident, which brought angry outbursts from Germany today, and vastly increased local resentment against international control prior to the forthcoming plebiscite, was turned over to judicial authorities by Colonel G. G. Knox, British head of the Saar governing commission.

These authorities were requested to determine whether any charges will grow out of the violent attack by a Nazi disciplinary band upon Captain James Justice, and his companion, the Earl of Aylesford.

The examination will include Hubertus von Lowenstein, a German exile, that he had been harassed by British officers in a cafe where Captain Arthur Heineley, of England, the chief of the Saar civil police, was present.

INCIDENT CAUSES OUTBURST By BERLIN NEWSPAPER BERLIN, Dec. 16.—(AP)—The Saarbruecken incident in which an Englishman was mobbed and a Saarite shot caused an angry outburst in German newspapers today.

Colonel G. G. Knox, head of the Saar governing commission, was accused of "confusion of the issue" in his report of the occurrence.

Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels' Der Angriff said "The whole thing was just a boasting carousal. It is well known that the English, while under the influence of liquor, are apt to lose control of themselves in a much worse way than the Germans."

SIR JOHN SIMON SEES NO POLITICAL COMPLICATIONS LONDON, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, said in the house of commons today that while the shooting and mobbing incident in the Saar was "extremely unfortunate" there was no need to anticipate a political complication.

Ware-Venable Rehearsal Followed By Buffet Supper

Miss Louise Ware and Dr. John H. Venable, whose marriage takes place this afternoon, were joined Monday evening at the buffet supper given by the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ware, at their home on Ponce de Leon avenue following the wedding rehearsal at Emory University chapel. The guests were limited to members of the bridal party and out-of-town guests who have arrived for the wedding.

A color motif of green and white prevailed in the decorations where the guests were received. In the dining room the lace-covered table was ornamented in the center by a large three-tiered wedding cake embossed in green and adorned at the top by a miniature bride and bridegroom. Attached to the tiny bride's bouquet were narrow white satin ribbons to which were tied several wedding symbols drawn by the guests. Silver candlesticks holding white tapers tied in the center by sprays of valley lilies added to the beauty of the table decorations. Vases and baskets of white roses were arranged on the mantels and bookcases throughout the home.

Mrs. Harry Winford complimented Miss Ware at luncheon on Monday at her Ridgecrest road residence, green, white and yellow predominating in the decorations. A silver bowl holding yellow roses adorned the center of the table, and silver candlesticks held yellow tapers. Hand-painted cards, suggestive of wedding scenes, marked the guests' places, and Mrs. R. C. Ware assisted the hostess in entertaining. Covers were placed for Miss Ware, Misses Rosalind Ware, Clara Knox Nunnally, of Monroe; Elise Jones, Traversville, Pa.; Louise Hollingsworth, of Fayetteville; Scott Meadow, Betty Murphy, Meadames Felker Lewis, of Monroe; Charles H. Scouter, Mrs. Ware and the hostess.

Miss Maidee Griffin Weds Thomas Long

Miss Maidee Winston Griffin became the bride of Thomas Long, of Chocoma, Ala., at a quiet ceremony taking place on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Bishop and Mrs. Warren A. Candler, on North Decatur road. Bishop Candler, a lifelong friend of the bride's family, performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family.

Wood-brown crepe fashioned the bride's becoming ensemble, and she wore accessories in a matching shade and a shoulder spray of rosebuds and valley lilies. Her coat was brown woven cloth. Immediately following the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Chocoma.

The bride is the daughter of the late Major J. H. Griffin and the late Mrs. Susie Means Griffin, of Oxford, Ga. She is the granddaughter of Dr. Alexander Means, one of the first presidents of Emory College, and is related to the Branham and Griffin families, who have long been prominent in the community with educational and religious life of the state. For the past few years she has made her home with her niece, Mrs. Clay Dickel, on Emory drive.

Mr. Long is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Long, of Anniston, Ala., and is the grandson of Rev. G. H. Smythe, who was for many years the pastor of the First Baptist church in Anniston, and prominent in all the religious activities of Alabama. Mr. Long has lived in Chocoma for several years, where he is engaged in business.

Atlanta Ballyhoo Plans Balls For Xmas at Standard Club

The annual ballyhoo sponsored by a group of prominent Atlantans at the Standard Club during the Christmas season is planned for next week. The program to include three brilliant balls and a tea dance, novel and original invitations in the form of presenting the greatest show on earth at a three-ring circus have been issued. The first of the events to be a formal dance on Sunday evening, December 23, from 11 to 2 o'clock. Preceding the dance a formal dinner will be served Ballyhoo members and their dates at 8 o'clock.

On Monday evening, December 24, at 10 o'clock, a colorful costume ball will be held, the guests requested to attend the affair wearing costumes representing animals, performers or something depicting circus life. Prizes will be awarded for best costumes and during the evening a number of stunts will be offered.

As an extra attraction to the ballyhoo program will be the tea-dance on the afternoon of December 25, this affair to be presented with the compliments of the Standard Club to its members, ballyhoosers and their guests.

Miss Rena Candler Is Complimented

Miss Rena Candler, a lovely bride-elect, whose marriage to W. H. Chambers Jr. will be brilliantly solemnized in December, was feted at a bridge-tee given on Monday by her fiancé's mother, Mrs. W. H. Chambers, and her daughter, Mrs. Roy Chambers, his sister, at the home of the latter on Cambridge avenue in Decatur. Yellow roses predominated in the colorful decorations, a silver bowl filled with these fragrant flowers, being placed in the center of the lace-covered tea table. Silver candlesticks held yellow candles and the tally cards were hand painted in wedding bells.

Invited to meet the honor guest were Mesdames William Candler, William Owens, Jesse York, Ola Sturl, Robert Harr, Henry Hope, L. L. Scheipert, R. A. ## BROADWAY BILL

By MARK HELLINGER

INSTALLMENT III.

It was a mighty, mighty, lucky thing for Broadway Bill, Dan and Whitey that Alice came when she did. Eating prospects around the little barn were bad—in fact, there were no prospects. It was indeed a welcome sight to Dan's eyes to see the shelf piled with groceries. Alice, opener in hand, was already cutting a can. She did it happily—for she was serving Dan. She caught her breath—her Dan!

"What's tonight?" called Dan.

"The split pea soup and the succotash."

Dan grinned and started to sing. "Oh, the split pea soup and the succotash. Had a fight once upon a time—A. Said the split pea soup to the succotash. 'Without corn you'd just be lime.'"

Alice made a wry face. Dan laughed.

"Never took a lesson in my life."

"What makes you so happy to-night?"

"Happy? Well, I'll tell you, dear teacher, I'm happy because the old man with the whiskers has his arm around my shoulder. I'm happy because I just entered Broadway Bill in a $500 race tomorrow—with the money you forced on me. I'm happy because we're going to win it—and that means we can enter the Handicap. And that means our troubles are over."

Alice looked into Dan's eyes. "You want to win that race, don't you?"

She smiled. "You will. I'm sure of it. Got my fingers crossed."

Dan sighed. "Got to get to the money to do things. Buy more horses—train them right—may even go in for breeding."

"Sounds wonderful."

"Take my word for it, Princess. I'm going to have the finest collection of thoroughbreds in the country. A lump rose in Alice's throat. She wished—prayed—Dan would stop, talking. "It's—it's starting to rain."

But Dan couldn't stop. Of such dreams men are made. "Margaret! I have to be proud of me."

Alice turned quickly from the window and resumed her cooking. Unnoticed, Dan, kept on. "She doesn't think much of me right now, does she?"

"Don't be silly."

"She will, though. I'll show her."

Alice put a plate on the table. "Dinner's ready."

"That's why," Dan went on. "I've got to win that big race, Princess. 'Soup's getting cold.'"

Dan sat down. "I've got to get her out of Higginsville if it's the last thing I do. Think I ever will?"

"Of course you will. Come on. Dinner's ready."

Whitey turned a sad pair of eyes towards the table. "Say, Boss—rain's comin' in. Roof's leakin'."

Dan's face clouded. He jumped to his feet. "Better get up and stuff it. Rain's hitting 'Bill'."

The rain whipped down in driving torrents. Lightning flashed over the open countryside. Thunder rolled.

"Aunt Het"

Alice's heart pounded with triphammer blast. She came to her eyes as Dan straightened to leave. She could hold her emotions no longer.

"Dan—"

Dan turned at the door. But Alice weakened. Dan's love just couldn't be for her.

"Don't worry. Everything going to be all right."

Dan smiled uncertainly. "Oh, sure—sure."

If Fate had been as kind as Alice's wishes, this thing wouldn't have turned out as they did. As it was, "Broadway Bill" took ill. Very ill.

"Sick animal," said the veterinary, solemnly.

"Bad?" asked Dan.

"Running a high fever. Needs a lot of care—and rest."

"But, Doc—he's got to race today."

The veterinary swung around. "Race? You're insane! Want to kill him? Wouldn't do any good anyway. He hasn't the energy to run around a track."

Alice knelt down by the horse's head. "He looks so pathetic."

"May be some time," said the doctor, "before that horse runs."

"How about Saturday, Doc? He's got to run Saturday. That's the big race. I've got him entered."

"Saturday?" The veterinary shrugged. "Don't know. Animals are very funny. Sometimes snap out of it just like that—"

"Other times—well—don't take him out until the fever disappears. And I wouldn't work him too hard even then. Rest him until the last minute."

Alice, stroking the horse's head, spoke throatily. "You've got to get well, 'Bill.' You've got to win the race. If you don't—"

She sobbed. "Oh, 'Bill'—"

The doctor gave a last bit of advice. "Don't forget. No food. Carrots, maybe. If he'll take it. I doubt it, though. They won't eat when they're sick. I'll send your man back with the stuff."

As the doctor left, a cab drew up in front of the ramshackle barn. Margaret, Dan's wife, it was an exciting event for Dan. For Margaret it was a victorious march—hadn't the cab driver said anybody was crazy to bet on "Broadway Bill," that plug?

Margaret, too, had a message—J. L. Old J. L. wanted Alice back in Higgins fold. But Alice was adamant. Margaret sat for the race or bite her bit in two!

"Enough? Why the fun's just started. We're having a little trouble with 'Broadway Bill' right now—but that'll blow over."

"I've had father keep your job open—If you should change your mind. Everyone thinks you've just gone on a vacation."

"Saving my face, huh? That's sweet of you, darling."

Margaret tried a new tack. "I've missed you, frantically."

Dan was pleased. "Have you? Missed you too. Say, Margaret, why don't you stay down here? Huh? Why not hang around?"

Margaret looked past Dan, taking in the room. Dan followed her gaze and started to laugh. "Yeah—that is ridiculous at that, isn't it? I never realized how out of place you'd look in these surroundings."

"Don't you see, darling, how unfair it is to ask me to live in—uh—in places like this?"

"Sure—sure. I was crazy to think of it. But you won't have to. Not after Saturday. I'll have twenty-five thousand dollars, and—"

"You seem," said Margaret, recalling the cab driver's words, "confident of winning."

"A cinch! And that's just the beginning. Why, darling, you'll live in luxury. I know. For Margaret it was hand on some marvelous horse. In a couple of years—"

"But what if you lose this race?"

"Huh?"

"What if you lose?"

"Lose? Don't be silly. Why 'Broadway Bill' couldn't—"

Continued Tomorrow.

REVISED SLATE IS ANNOUNCED FOR BOYS' HIGH

Riverside, Sydney Lanier Added To Purple Grid Schedule.

By Roy White.

An 11-game football schedule for Boys' High next year was announced Monday by Coach R. L. Doyal, the school athletic director. Several changes in the schedule as tentatively planned some weeks ago were made last week and the card was completed Monday.

Riverside Military Academy, an old foe, was returned to the schedule for a night game at Ponce de Leon park, October 24. Sydney Lanier, of Montgomery, another old foe, and Enaley, of Birmingham, were added to the card.

Marist, G. M. A. Bradley, of Cleveland, Tenn., and Central High, of Chattanooga, were dropped from the 12-game schedule of 1935.

After winning both the city and state championships the undefeated Boys' High eleven was much in demand, both for a post-season charity game and games for next year. Several requests for dates have been placed on file for consideration in the 1936 schedule.

Commercial will open the card on September 12 and Decatur, Enaley, Monroe and Gordon will follow in order, in night games at Ponce de Leon park.

Savannah, Sydney Lanier, at Montgomery; Lanier, at Macon, and Miami, Thanksgiving, in Miami, will be played away from home.

Boys' High closed its most successful season Saturday in winning the state crown, 14 to 6, at Savannah. It was the twelfth straight win for the team and the first since 1929.

The same group of coaches, R. L. Doyal, at the head; Dickie Butler in the backfield, and Dwight Keith in the line, will be returned for next year. They did a fine job this season.

THE SCHEDULE. (slight).
September 12—Decatur (night).
September 19—Enaley (night).
October 4—Monroe (slight).
October 12—Savannah at Savannah.
October 24—Riverside (slight).
November 1—Sydney Lanier, Montgomery.
November 9—Lanier High at Macon.
November 16—Tech High (afternoon).
November 23—Off.
November 30—Miami High at Miami.

Sons of Big Leaguers Shine for Purples

Sons of two major league baseball stars and another youngster who won fame on the sandlots, were important links in the Boys' High football championship chain during the season just closed.

Jim Bagby Jr., a star pitcher on the Purple line last year, and Joe Gerson, a first baseman on the championship sandlot team, were the capable managers during the year. They were on the job every day and will be heard from when the baseball season rolls around.

Carlisle Smith Jr. was an outstanding halfback during the closing games. He was injured during the first of the season but was vital cog in the championship machine in the last five or six games. He punted, passed, ran with the ball and was one of the best defensive players on the squad. His punting was particularly good.

Unlike his baseball-playing father, Carlisle cares little for baseball.

CARDS' FINISH WINS IN POLL

By Jack Caddy.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, world champions in professional baseball, scored another notable victory today by winning Minnesota's national football amateur championship, 168 to 78, in the United Press national poll of sports editors to determine the outstanding team achievement of 1934.

It was the first time this year that Bernie Bierman's Minnesota grizzlies juggernaut was beaten, but the momentum gained by the Cardinals in their end-season rush to the National League pennant and to their World Series triumph bowled over the Galloping Gophers with ease.

Most editors voted for the Cardinals because St. Louis was forced to fight harder for its achievement than Minnesota whose only genuine threat came from Pittsburgh.

HAIL CARDS' FEAT.
Disregarding sectional allegiances and sports preferences, editors from Frisco to New York and from Miami to Maine hailed the Cards' feat as one of the most brilliant accomplishments in any sport.

Their comment glorified the pennant surge, starting September 7, when the Cards were seven full games behind the New York Giants, and ending in triumph on the very last day of the season, September 30. They emphasized that, rich as the Deans, McDewick & Co. battled through the World Series games before downing the Detroit Tigers.

A total of 235 editors voted on the question of team supremacy. Columbia's surprise Rose Bowl victory over Stanford on New Year's Day, and Stanford's showing on the gridiron this season, tied for third place with eight votes each.

TIED FOR FOURTH.
The Detroit Tigers' rise to the American League pennant, and the Chicago Bears' string of victories in the National Professional Football league's regular season, were tied for fourth with six ballots apiece.

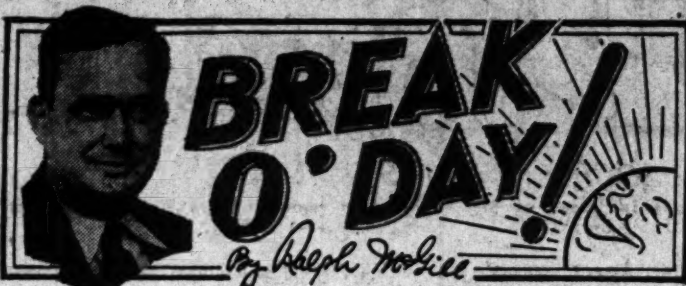

The rest of the votes were distributed among the following football achievements: The New York Giants fourth-period rally against the Chicago Bears in gaining the National Professional football championship; Yale's upset victory over Princeton; Rice Institute's unexpectedly good season; Alabama's unbeaten campaign; Navy's comeback and win over Army, and the excellent season enjoyed by Little College of the Pacific under venerable Alonzo Stagg.

Petersen Retains Heavyweight Title

LONDON, Dec. 17.—(UP)—Jack Petersen retained his British and British empire heavyweight championship tonight by winning a 15-round bout with Australian George Cook on points in Albert hall.

PITCHERS, ATTENTION!

Frank Demaree, who has been recalled by the Cubs, hit 45 home runs in the Pacific Coast league last season.

When the Crimson Tide takes the field on January 1 at Pasadena in the Rose Bowl, it will be the fourth Alabama team and the sixth southern team to put cleats on the Rose Bowl turf. Only Tulane has met defeat in the list of southern teams sent to the annual classic in the deep arroyo on the outskirts of the city.

Tulane's 1931 team, off to a bad start, lost to Southern California but scored twice and had El Trojan on the run when the whistle blew. The score was 21 to 12 against the Tulane eleven.

Alabama defeated Washington in 1926, tied Stanford in 1927 and obliterated Washington State on January 1, 1931.

Georgia Tech followed the 1927 Alabama team and on January 1, 1929, defeated California, 8 to 7.

The score does not really show the superiority of the Tech team which included Peter Fund, "Father" Lumpkin, Stumpy Thomason and others of the championship team.

Roy Riegels' run, when he picked up a fumble and ran to his own 2-yard stripe before the fleet and frantic Benny Lom pulled him down, always went down as the reason for Tech's victory.

Actually Vance Maree blocked a California kick for a safety and Tech had a margin of one point over any touchdown which might be scored. Coach Alexander sent out word to nurse that one point lead. And nurse it they did, through a frantic pass attack. Tech could have scored at least two more touchdowns in that game but Coach Alexander, with Lumpkin ill and yet playing a magnificent defensive game, would not risk the chance.

The east has won but two games in the bowl. The record follows:

District	Games	W.	L.	T.	Av.
South	5	3	1	1	.750
Midwest	2	1	1	0	.500
Pacific	17	8	6	3	.470
East	10	2	6	2	.200

Not listed in this record is Michigan's 1901 victory—the first one to be played for the Tournament of Roses. Michigan won, 49 to 0, from Stanford, cutting the last half 13 minutes short when Stanford had no more subs. That was the Michigan team which scored an even 550 points to none for opponents—the greatest football record of all time.

ROY RIEGELS' RUN

That run by Roy Riegels on January 1, 1929, remains as one of the greatest bits of tragic drama in all football history.

Eighty thousand people were there and the intensity of the fight on the field was reflected in the tenseness of the crowd, the screaming echoes, the bursts of raucous cheering that bounded back from the slopes of the arroyo.

Stumpy Thomason was playing his usual brilliant, irritating game that day. He was running backward and losing one play but getting away on the next. He was taking kicks on the run. He was running like the great player he was. And he was fumbling as he did now and then in all games.

Wallace Wade was to say of Thomason that year: "He drives me crazy. I never know when he is going to lose 20 yards or gain 90."

But Thomason fumbled and the ball bounded into the arms of Roy Riegels, the center on the California team.

He set out for his own goal line. I recall that I was sitting next to Chick Meehan, then at New York University and now at Manhattan. "My God," screamed Meehan, "I believe he is running the WRONG way."

It was one of those things the eyes saw but which the mind refused to accept. The brain kept refusing messages sent by the eyes. One radio announcer actually carried Riegels on over the line for a touchdown.

The stadium was a mass of mad, hysterical sound. Some knew what was happening. Others screamed, thinking it was a score.

Two Tech players were fooled and chased Riegels. Had they caught him they would likely have tackled him. Behind Riegels ran Benny Lom, great halfback. He was screaming but Riegels didn't hear. Lom caught him at the 2-yard line. And Vance Maree blocked Lom's kick.

RIEGLS WAS SMILING

Pictures of that run showed Roy Riegels to be smiling as he raced on toward his own goal. He thought he was about to score.

His horror on learning the truth was so great that he almost fainted. I can see Lom yet as he finally caught Riegels, grabbed his arm and pulled him around. Riegels was a great center. His teammates elected him captain for the next season and he came back to make the all-coast team and be elected as the most valuable member of his team.

There was one more curious chapter to his life.

When he came to get married in later years he went to Reno, Nev., to have the ceremony said.

INFORMATION REGARDING TRIP WEST

The Alabama team will depart from Tuscaloosa at 10 a. m. Friday morning. Bill Peoples, of the Southern Pacific, who has taken the Georgia team out twice, who took Georgia Tech and who has accompanied all Alabama teams west, will be in charge of the railroad end of things. He has traveled a mere 50,000 miles with southern football teams going to the coast for games.

Alabama will stop at the Huntington hotel in Pasadena, the Stanford team at the Vista del Arroyo. The first Alabama team, the one which defeated Washington, 20 to 19, in 1926, stopped at the Huntington. Later teams stopped at the Vista. Georgia Tech's 1928 team was housed at the Vista.

A letter from S. W. Royce, manager of the Huntington, brings the information that all teams which have stopped there this year have won. The Huntington has been favored by southern teams.

The Huntington is approximately one mile from the Rose Bowl. The bowl may be seen from the windows of the Vista. Neither team will be permitted to work in the bowl more than twice.

Alabama will practice twice on the way to California, at San Antonio on Saturday and on Sunday a long walk at Tucson will take the place of practice. The team arrives Monday morning, December 24, and will work at Occidental College in the afternoon. Georgia Tech used this same field.

THAT SUGAR BOWL GAME

That Sugar Bowl game should become quite an institution. The promoters should be very careful to put the game over with something approximating a bang. It is very difficult to eliminate a success.

The game is certain to meet with opposition from the Southeastern conference when it meets in February. It is very likely to be eliminated as far as a conference team is concerned.

It will not be necessary to rule against the Rose Bowl game as invitations to conference teams come rather infrequently, while the Sugar Bowl game proposes to be an annual affair. The boys will do well to make it a sugary success.

TULANE STARTS GRID PRACTICE FOR BOWL GAME

Wave Sent Through Light Drill; Owls Arrive Saturday.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 17.—(AP)—With two weeks' rest behind them, Tulane's Green Wave took the practice field today to prepare for the Sugar Bowl contest with Temple on New Year's.

The squad was sent through light practice but the schedule will be stiffened when the university closes for the Christmas holidays, to include scrimmages with the freshmen.

Pop Warner will coach New Orleans Saturday with his undefeated squad but he will go on through to Baton Rouge, where he will use the L. S. U. plant for conditioning his men.

As practice opened at Tulane, "Little Monk" Simons, star back, had his shoulder in bandages from injuries in the L. S. U. game and it will not be known until Wednesday whether he can start against Temple. An X-ray will tell the story. The practice also found George Tessier, guard, hobbling on crutches and he probably will not get in the game.

The Sugar Bowl contest not only will bring together two brilliant teams but it will offer a sharp contrast in coaching and coaches. Pop Warner will bring his principles well schooled in the double-wing back formation with an occasional shift to single-wing and with a backfield full of tricks.

Cox, who wasn't even born when "Pop" was coaching winning teams, will throw in his single-wing formation with the Minnesota shift that depends on power in the line and speed in the backfield.

Both teams will play smart football with plenty of forward and lateral passing to break the monotony of running plays. Warner will give the benefit of scouts as neither has played a game since they were chosen to play in the inaugural Sugar Bowl. The Wave will have the benefit of Andy Kerr's experience with Tulane, which he defeated in New York with his Colgate Red Raiders. Cox will build up a defense to the Colgate system. The team was expected to adopt these tactics of tricks and speed.

DUTRA FAVORED IN NASSAU OPEN

By Ted Gill.

NASSAU, Bahamas, Dec. 17.—(AP) Al Watrous, Birmingham, Mich. professional, turned in a par-busting 65 today to lead the field practicing for the $5,000 British Colonial open golf tournament starting tomorrow.

His 30-35 clipped three strokes from perfect figures of 68.

Olin Dutra, United States open champion, teamed with Jacksonville, Fla. Debe Clifford to defeat Billy Burke and Willie Macfarlane in the final round featuring the pre-tournament play.

Dutra, who had a best ball score of 64; Burke and Macfarlane a 66.

The governor's round of 41-38-70 was the best made by any amateur competing for the United States and Bahamas trophy he offered the low scoring non-professional.

Other low practice scores included a 68 for Jack Toomer, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mike Turnesa, of Elmsford, N. Y.; Lew Waldron, of Bensonville, Ill.; Sonny Rouse, of Highland Park, Ill.; Macfarlane, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Oak Ridge, N. Y., and Burke, of Belle Air, Fla.

Dutra, tall Californian who is favored to win the event, had a nice 66.

The field of 67 teeing off tomorrow includes 56 professionals, most of whom competed last week in the $12,500 Miami Biltmore open which Dutra won.

Nine Nassau amateurs will attempt to keep the Governor's cup from traveling to the United States by winning the possession either of Bruno Minkley, of Buffalo, N. Y., or Joseph R. Peters, of Coral Gables, Fla., the only amateurs to make the airplane flight here.

First prize for the professionals is $500. The other $4,500 will be divided among the next 40 finishers.

The tournament will last three days.

Yankees To Play Crackers in April

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The New York Yankees today listed 27 exhibition games for their 1935 spring training campaign.

The exhibition season will open March 16 at the Yankees' training site in St. Petersburg, Fla., with the Boston Braves of the National league furnishing the opposition and the campaign will close April 14 at Brooklyn against the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The schedule, the games not otherwise listed to be played at St. Petersburg follows:

March 17, 19, Boston Braves, 20, Cincinnati Reds at Tampa; 21, Cincinnati Reds; 23, 24, Boston Braves; 25, Newark Bears; 26, Boston Braves; 27, Boston Braves; 28, St. Louis Cardinals at Bradenton; 29, Newark Bears at Clearwater; 30, 31, Boston Braves.

April 1, St. Louis Cardinals; 2, Boston Braves; 3, 4, 5, Birmingham at Birmingham; 6 and 7, Atlanta at Atlanta; 8, Chicago Cubs at Chattanooga; 9, Nashville at Nashville; 10, Knoxville at Knoxville; 11, Charlotte at Charlotte; 12, 13 and 14, Brooklyn Dodgers at Brooklyn.

Strickland's Death Halts Buford Plans

BUFORD, Ga., Dec. 17.—Buford's baseball plans for next year have been temporarily held up following the death of Paul Strickland several days ago.

Strickland was manager of Buford's baseball teams for the past 15 years and was taken ill soon after attending a meeting of a proposed baseball league and died within a short time.

Paul Strickland was manager of Buford's teams which played an important part of the old "Million Dollar League" and later won the first half of the Northeast Georgia league before it was disbanded at the end of the first half of the split season.

Temple, Tulane Stars Clash in Sugar Bowl

"Pop" Warner's Temple gridiron huskies will provide the nation with a counter attraction to the famed New Year's Day Rose Bowl game when they face Tulane in the Sugar Bowl clash at New Orleans on January 1. Already they are predicting a battle between "Little Monk" Simons, Tulane's touchdown-a-game half-back, and "Dynamite" Dave Smukler, line crasher of the Temple eleven. Tessier, Tulane tackle, will be in there attempting to thwart Owl gains. A sell-out is predicted.

WARNER NAMES TEMPLE SQUAD

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The 33 gridiron ambassadors Temple University will send into the southland for the Sugar Bowl tilt with Tulane on New Year's Day were picked today by Coach Glenn (Pop) Warner.

Although one of Warner's high hopes, Dave Smukler, line smashing fullback, spent the day in the hospital with a light attack of grippe, his name was near the top of the list of Temple's chosen banner carriers.

Another member of the three eleven on which Warner depends to carry on Temple's unbeaten 1934 record is down with laryngitis—End Roy Lorenz.

Both Smukler and Lorenz are expected to be back in shape in plenty of time to leave Philadelphia for the Sugar Bowl squad on Thursday. In each case, the hospitalization was more a question of precaution rather than treatment.

Line men called for service in the sectional game are Lorenz, Elmer Anderson, James Baker, John Boyd, Charles Kemmerer, Richard Landis, William Docherty, Stanley Gurszinski, Amelio Ippolito, Maurice Lister, Chester Messervy, James Russell, Frank Schaefer, Thomas Miller, Peter Stevens, Lloyd Wise, Joseph Zanin, Harry Zachrow, John Zukas and John Hartman.

Backs on the squad include Smukler, Glenn Frey, William Davidson, John Konopa, Wilfred Bongardoff, Joseph Egan, George Paul, John Kuff, Horace Mowrey, John Stonin, Dan Testa, Don Watt, Gordon Smith.

The squad spent today's practice period in ball tossing and generally light workout. Scrimmage will be rescheduled for arrival at Brookline, Mass., Saturday. Immediately upon their arrival, Warner will put his boys through their paces on the Louisiana State University field, where the Temple squad will train during its southern stay.

HAMAS TO MEET MAX SCHMELING

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Charles Harvey, manager of Steve Hamas, New Jersey contender for the world's heavyweight boxing championship, announced tonight that he had signed a contract for Hamas to meet Max Schmeling, of Germany, in a 12-round bout in Hamburg, on March 10.

Harvey's announcement followed two months' negotiations with Walter Rothenburg, German promoter. The contract calls for a flat guarantee of $25,000 and stipulates that Hamas does not fight between now and his engagement with the former world's champion. A special stadium with a seating capacity of more than 25,000 will be built in Hamburg, Harvey said.

The Madison Square Garden Corporation has been counting on stadium the rematch for the former Penn State collegian and Schmeling in Miami next February.

U. S. Judge Delays Engel Decision

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Joe Engel, president of the Chattanooga baseball club, will not know until next year whether he will be forced to return to Washington to answer charge that he failed to provide for his former wife, Mary P. Engel.

At a hearing before United States District Judge George C. Taylor today, the question of Engel's removal from Chattanooga to Washington was taken under advisement, and Judge Taylor indicated that he would pass on the matter January 2, 1935.

400,000 Trout Eggs Are Given Georgia

Good news to fishermen came from the state department of game and fish Monday.

It was announced that 300,000 eggs were donated to the state by a private citizen. The eggs had been received at the hatchery at Summerville, where the eggs will be hatched and the trout placed in streams in north Georgia.

The rainbows came from Virginia, the browns from Montana. Both were supplied by the United States bureau of fisheries.

ATLANTA CLUB GIVEN CHANCE OF RECOVERY

'Judge' To Rule on Case in About Ten Days, He Says.

By Jimmy Jones.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 17.—Charley Dressen, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was called on the carpet here today by Judge Kenesaw M. Landis to tell what he knew about the drafting of Harry Kelley by the Toronto club and subjected to a vigorous round of questioning by his highness.

When the delegation of witnesses from Atlanta, composed of Earl Mann, vice president of the Crackers, and two Atlanta baseball writers who were familiar with the case, arrived in the judge's commodious offices at 333 North Michigan boulevard, they had not been long seated when Dressen arrived in the reception room and was immediately ushered into the hearing by one of Landis' office attendants.

Charley, the former manager at Nashville, had been abruptly summoned from his nearby home at Decatur, Ill., by the judge in his usual decisive and vigorous way of doing things and he, along with the three witnesses, was put through the hoops, so to speak, for the greater part of two hours.

Dressen first.

While two clerical assistants took voluminous notes in shorthand on the testimony, Judge Landis, without much delay, laid down a barrage of questions, concentrating his fire on Dressen first.

Dressen, answering all queries in a straightforward and thoroughly honest fashion, admitted that he had recommended the drafting of Kelley from Atlanta and Calvin Chapman, a young infielder from Memphis, to the Toronto club, with which the Reds are affiliated and that he had considered both players as being worthy of future consideration by the Cincinnati club.

In reply to a specific question put forward by the judge, as to whether he intended giving these players a trial at Cincinnati in the event they showed promise in the spring, Dressen replied:

"Yes I did."

"In this event, Charley, just how would you go about taking over these players from the Toronto club?" the judge asked.

Dressen replied that he didn't know. "I was going to leave that up to the Cincinnati business office," Dressen replied.

Here the judge addressed another pointed question.

"Isn't it true that the Cincinnati and Toronto clubs will train together, in the same enclosure at Tampa, in the spring?"

Dressen replied in the affirmative, but that the teams would train on separate diamonds.

OH, YES, SHO?

"Then, is it not true, Charley, that there would be nothing to prevent you from taking a little stroll over to the Toronto team's diamond some afternoon and taking a look at Kelley and Chapman?" Landis continued.

Dressen admitted the possibility of this.

Landis interposed another question. "Supposing then that Kelley, particularly, would impress you sufficiently—would you consider having him transferred to Cincinnati later on the season in case you thought he could win there?"

Dressen stated that this was entirely possible.

Testimony also was introduced statements and intimations made by Dressen, just prior to and after taking the Cincinnati job, quoted him as having been interested in getting Kelley drafted, after some mass at the Louisville meeting, wherein he stated that he might have a look at

Toccoa Club Honors Three Grid Captains

Bond, McKnight and McNeely To Be Feted at Banquet Friday Night.

By Jack Troy.

Don't be surprised some day to see an advertisement that runs along these lines—Drink in the invigorating freshness of mountain air bottled in Toccoa.

One like this—Toccoa turns turn out treasures. One with a lot of logic, and very applicable, too, would read like this—For football captains address high school, Toccoa.

There is to be a banquet sponsored by the T. club, composed of letter-wearers of past and present years, Friday night in the little mountain town of North Georgia.

And it is to be a very special and significant occasion, with leading state coaches and others present. Seated at the banquet table will be three 1935 football captains, all from the same town. Toccoa is the name.

THREE CAPTAINS.
John Bond and John McKnight, co-captains of the University of Georgia team of next year, and Jack McNeely, captain-elect of the Oglethorpe eleven, will be honored.

Rarely, if ever, does a small town have a chance to assert its civic pride in such a pardonable manner.

Bond, McKnight and McNeely are home-grown boys, so to speak. And very fine boys they are. They are products of a community that points to other years of football glory.

There was Herb Moffett, for instance, Herb captained the 1930 Georgia team and was an All-Southern end.

GASTON, COOPER.
Then there was Marion Gaston, a fine back, and Bull Cooper, a great tackle. Toccoa raised them and watched their success at Georgia with a civic glow.

The school turned out to greet Jack McNeely, the Oglethorpe captain-elect, when the Petrels went through en route to Washington. It

And Friday night the T. Club is going to honor the three captains of next year. It is sure to be a fine affair.

Grayson, Stanford's Ace Fullback, To Start Against 'Bama

SIDE INJURY IS ALL HEALED, DOCTOR STATES

Will Start Practice at Once; Other 'Cripples' Reported Okay.

PAZO ALTO, Cal., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Bobby Grayson, Stanford's premier fullback, has completely recovered from serious injuries suffered last November 24 and will be ready for Alabama and the New Year's Day Rose Bowl football game at Pasadena.

This cheering news was given to Coach Claude "Tad" Thornehill, today. Dr. Roth said Grayson's torn ligaments had healed and he could return to practice at once.

Five other Stanford players, crippled or sick, also were pronounced either completely well or nearly recovered. James Mosier, tackle, Jack Drown, first reserve tackle, and Frank Alustia, quarterback, have shaken off illness.

The only casualty remaining, Stan Anderson, first substitute for Grayson, still is under observation. He was sent to the hospital last week suffering from a heavy cold which threatened to develop into pneumonia.

Rain Hampers Crimson Workout.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 17.—(UP)—A drizzling rain today drove Alabama's Crimson Tide into the gymnasium for the first of its last four workouts before departure Friday for the Rose Bowl meeting with Stanford.

A brisk round of calisthenics was followed by dummy scrimmage. Skull practice was worked for tonight. Many Tiedmen still nursed lame ligaments from last Saturday's heavy scrimmage. Bob Ed Morrow, guard, who suffered a broken nose, was back in uniform, however.

Fervent competition was in progress among the reserves for places on the squad of 33 which Coach Frank Thomas will select this week for the coast invasion.

21 HORSES DIE IN STABLE FIRE

TORONTO, Dec. 17.—(AP)—A band of organized arsonists was sought tonight by police following an incendiary fire which swept the stables of the Thoroughbred racing track, destroying 21 valuable race horses.

Today's disastrous fire came while police were investigating the circumstances of a fire which leveled two unoccupied stables.

Neil McArthur, caretaker at the track, said the fire appeared to have been set in several places.

A blaze first was discovered in two empty stables but while the firemen were busy there another stable a half mile away was seen in flames.

McArthur rushed to the second fire and attempted, with the aid of stable hands, to lead the terrified horses to safety. Several were driven out but rushed back into the barn and were burned to death. Only one was led out and it was so badly burned it had to be destroyed.

When I opened the doors of the stable," McArthur told police, "the place was full of fire and smoke and it looked as if it had been set on fire. I opened the doors of all the stables and tried to get the horses out but they were so terrified I couldn't do anything with them. A few went out on their own, but then turned around and ran back in."

Most valuable of the horses lost was Ladder, owned by Hank Lake and valued at $20,000. He was owned or had a share in the other 19.

Linen Service Beats Tech Hi 'B'

Linen Service Company defeated the Tech High "B" team in the final and best game of Monday night's series of the T-City league, 28 to 24.

The winners trailed until the final minute of play. Miller's dozen points were the deciding factors of the game, his final four points tying and winning the tilt. Taylor and Sawyer also played key ball in this game.

THE SPORT PARADE

The Height of Form and Fashion, 30 Years Ago

It is what you might easily call a far cry from this golf scene of 30 years ago to the golfing shorts of 1934 that stirred up such a hub-bub last summer. If you made a careful study of the hats, dresses and shoes worn on a fashionable course in 1900, you might find a real excuse for the lady who is making a desperate effort to pivot and swing a golf club. There is at least no argument here about getting the left heel off the ground. The main point is—how is she going to keep her hat on in the follow-through? Copyright, 1934, by Grantland Rice.

FLORIDA BASKET OUTLOOK FAIR

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Dec. 17.—(AP)—It's just a "fair chance" that the University of Florida basketball team will march down to the front row of the Southeastern conference again this season.

"We haven't got the club we had last year," says Coach Ben Clemmons.

Although surrounded by six-footers—all the range he wants for a first five—the Gator court shows no optimism over the season's prospects. Last year Florida lost to Alabama in the final of the Southeastern conference tournament, and in years past has been regarded highly in southern circles.

Coach Clemmons' hardest job, he says, will be replacing three veterans he lost last year. With the loss, however, the Florida coach still has a varsity composed of players six feet or over.

Bob "Pop" Warner, who stands six feet, three inches tall, is being counted on for a starring role at center. Captain Welome Shearer and Bob Rickett, guards, both are over the six-foot mark, as are "Spec" Kinsey and "Buck" Starnes, forwards.

Promising sophomore material, all of whom were on the football squad, include Carlisle Hughes and Floyd Christian, guards; Al Hickland, 280-pounder, center; Bob Barry, forward, and Burroughs, center.

The Gators open the season on the home court Thursday night with the Duke Blue Devils, finalist of the Southern conference tournament last season. The second game of the series will be played here Friday night.

Other games have been scheduled with University of Georgia, Mercer, South Carolina, Alabama and Auburn.

The schedule:

Jan. 10—Georgia at Athens.
Jan. 12—Mercer at Macon.
Jan. 14—Florida at Gainesville.
Feb. 1—Alabama at Tusculosa.
Feb. 13—Auburn at Auburn.
Feb. 15—Georgia at Gainesville.

Down the Alley

Another proverbial "battle of the century" will be staged at Blick's Bowling Center, when the Theatrical Printing Company, league leaders, tie up with the second-place Paramount team in the Motion Picture Ducky league this evening.

Paramount is just a single game behind the leaders and they hope to tie things up, at least, with a two-game win Tuesday evening.

Columbia bowlers R. K. Warner, Brothers play M-G-M; Fox meets National Screen in the balance of play in this peppy bowling group.

The Aetna Casualty & Surety Company boys are beginning to hit the little pins in championship style in the Fire Insurance Ducky league, and making the other teams suffer losses in more recent games. The team was composed of comparatively new bowlers as the season opened and, though they lost several games at the opening, they are now in the lead.

The schedule for tonight is: Aetna Casualty & Surety Company vs. Travelers; Commercial Union vs. American Fire Insurance Company; Cotton Insurance Association vs. Hartford Fire Insurance Company.

Pinson Tire Company won the first title in the City Ducky league Monday, winning three games from the formidable Blick's Bowling Center five.

Captain Joe Dyer, G. L. Bushong, W. Payne, Bill Sheridan and Vernon Nygard did some splendid work in making a real title outfit out of the Pinson team. They are real champions.

Walter E. Lawson topped the league in individual average for the first half with a mark of 120 and 37 pins over for his 41 games bowled, just 4 pins shy of 121. Sossong was second with 119.

The Walter A. Guest team really went places to cop the second place at the close of the first half when they considered this team was just one step out of the cellar at the end of the first round in this eight-team league.

In the Georgia Temple league, A. L. Zachary will bowl Anderson's Flower Shop; Davey Plumbing & Heating will play Hartford Fire Insurance; Knights of Columbus meet Aces; Gaylord Container plays York's Grill.

Curtis Printing Company bowls Power Club; Ancient Daries tie up with S. A. L. Railway; United Motors vs. Railway Mail; 1,000 Roach Killer vs. General Electric Company in the Amateur Ducky league.

The Gate City league calls for Fairbanks, Morse & Co. to play Atlantic Steel; Lamar-Rankin Drugs vs. Devision-Paxon; American Can vs. J. P. Allen; Knight Ice vs. York.

Yanks Sweep Decks Clean In 1934 Yacht Competition

Editor's Note: This is the second of a series of eight articles reviewing the 1934 sports parade. Others on golf, tennis, racing, track, football and boxing will follow.

By Tom Horgan, Associated Press Sports Writer.

BOSTON, Dec. 17.—(AP)—With the sleek contenders all tucked away in winter storage after the most active season in many years, 1934 has been written down in history as a year in which American rule of the yachting seas remained virtually unbroken.

The defeat of T. O. M. Sopwith and his Endeavour, English challengers for the historic America's cup, by Harold S. Vanderbilt and Rainbow, of course attracted the lion's share of public attention.

Contrary to expectations of the optimistic, however, the America's cup series, sailed by Newport, R. I., little to improve Anglo-American relations. Sopwith won the first two races of the series, scheduled as the best four out of seven, and Endeavour became a top-heavy favorite. Then Vanderbilt scored four straight victories and turned back the fifteenth British challenger for the 88-year-old trophy, but not before protest flags had begun to fly. The New York Yacht Club declined to entertain the first of Sopwith's protests, holding he did not know, or did not abide by the rules through a delay in breaking out his protest flag, and the Englishman went home, promising never to return.

In the successful defense of the Canada's cup on Lake Ontario, premier fresh water trophy, by Conewago, sailed by Wilmet W. Castle, of the Rochester Yacht Club, the challenger, Invader II, skippered by Thomas E. Wade, of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, was turned back in three straight defeats.

FORM PLAYERS TAKE DRUBBING

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Form players took their first big drubbing of the Florida season today when J. McCabe's diminutive filly, Little Lile, the favorite, finished far out of the money in the Florida jockey club's No. 100, and Joseph E. Widener's Great Bast.

No Saint looked like a winner until the last furlong. Dokes, thundering up from the rear, took No Saint in the eye the closing length of a mile and drew away to score easily.

Jockey L. Machado and the five-year-old gelding, Judge Primrose, proved to be the winners of the $100,000 purse, feature at the Fair Grounds track in New Orleans.

Paying $12,400 to win, $6,400 to place and $4,400 to show, Dokes, a 10-year-old, won the $100,000 purse, feature at the Fair Grounds track in New Orleans.

Another long-shot came through in the first at Charleston, W. Va., when Sweep Vestal, a maiden owned by E. N. Meyer, galloped to victory without a single kick on her to win.

It was a surprise, for Meyer had read his crystal right he would have been rewarded with $1,318.50 for a $2 ticket. As it was the filly rewarded American place backers with $105.90 for $2.

Feminine honors went to Miss Lorna Whittlesey, who won the women's championship of Long Island sound for the fifth time in eight years.

Sailing has been adopted as a sport by many eastern prep schools and 18 schools were represented in the fifth annual intercollegiate championship sailed in June on Buzzards bay, Belmont Hill (Mass.). School was sailed to victory by John Sprague, Julian Underwood and Samuel Vanglin Jr.

It big league yachting is snow-bound for the winter, it doesn't mean all yachtsmen have sought warm firesides. The frostbiters, that hairy group of dingie sailors, will fight it out along New York, Rhode Island and Massachusetts shores throughout the winter, dodging ice cakes and apparently enjoying it.

Specific instances of each one were pointed out and illustrated by photographs.

TIGERS WONDER WHO'S LEADER; LONG OR JONES

Players in Middle of Senator - Coach Argument.

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 17.—(AP)—The Louisiana Tigers—plucky little band of football players—were sitting in the middle tonight of the heated row between their coach, "Biff" Jones, and Louisiana's boss politician, Huey Long.

They were wondering if their coach would survive the heated argument he had with Long during the Oregon-L.S.U. game Saturday when Jones refused to let Long talk to the team at the half when the Tigers were trailing the Oregonians.

Long challenged Jones' authority to prevent this talking to the squad, and the conversation went like this:

"I WANT TO TALK TO THE TEAM," said Long.

"No," replied Jones.

"Who will stop me if I do?"

"Well, you won't talk."

"You had better win this game."

"Well, if I don't, I guess I'm through," asked Jones.

"Yes," answered Long.

"I'm through," shouted Jones, trembling in anger.

"All right," yelled Long.

Long did not talk to the team at the half, but Jones did, and the Tigers came out and won the game by 1 point.

After the game, alumni and university officials sought to smooth out the row, but Long said he was not sure he wanted Jones to stay, and Jones refused to say anything about the incident.

ENTIRE CHARGE.

Biff Jones, officially captain Lawrence Jones, came to Louisiana State University from West Point on a military assignment from the war department, and took over the football squad as head coach. When he arrived Long announced that Jones and his staff would have entire charge of the team, but Jones said he was not sure he wanted Jones to stay, and Jones refused to say anything about the incident.

In the three years he has coached the team, Jones has prevented Long dealing directly with the players and at times Long lashed out at the restraint as he liked to refer to "my university and my football team."

At the situation, stood tonight, Jones had notified verbally James M. Smith, university president, his intentions to resign. If the row can be smoothed out, Jones probably will remain another season, otherwise he may be transferred to some other duty by the war department.

At Washington, the war department pointed out that Jones could resign at any time as football coach as his assignment at L. S. U. officially was military duty.

INTELLACHEN GETS TOURNERY

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The Intellachen Country Club, of Minneapolis, one of the four golf courses that contributed to Bobby Jones' "grand slam of 1930," next year will have an opportunity to play a part in the creating of another golf record.

It was four years ago, at Intellachen, that the great Georgian compiled a four-round aggregate of 287 to win the national open and the third of his four tricks of the season.

Intellachen, which is a long, narrow strip of land, was founded in 1892 by August that Virginia Van Wie, of Chicago, will strive for her fourth consecutive national women's championship.

It has not yet been definitely determined whether High Quetz, winner of the Peckness and only conqueror of Cavalcade this year, will continue to the stud. He has a bowed tendon.

Smith is training World Series and Special Agent for the Florida Derby. He is a 10-year-old, probably will be reserved for the Kentucky Derby. This follows the successful system Mrs. Sloane's stables used last spring when Time Clock won the Florida event, and Cavalcade was victorious in the Kentucky classic.

Tennessee Wins Over Lincoln, 52-16

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 17.—(AP)—The University of Tennessee's sophomore basketball squad continued rampant tonight by defeating Lincoln Memorial University, 52 to 16. It was the Vol's second consecutive victory by an overwhelming score.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPERS.

No. 2.—Howard Jones and Harry Kipke. Dear Santa—From your northern snows Sit us no gifts of gold— But when the Yuletide spirit flows Bring back the days of old— Put all your reindeer on the track To haul the perfect blend— A running guard—a blocking back— Two tackles and an end.

Yes, we can take it on the chin But when the sun has set It's better far to give—and win— For what do takers get? Bring us a runner who can bowl His way through cracking bones, Who knows the path across the goal— H. Kipke—and H. Jones.

SANTA ANITA. ARCADIA, Cal., Dec. 17.—Some 55,000 or 60,000 spectators on Christmas Eve will run into a new pictorial setting. They will see race horses opening a meeting against the background of snow-capped Sierra Nevada mountains as they sit or stand in the midst of transplanted orange trees and flower beds.

All this may have no effect upon those who have picked the wrong horse, but that is a detail that can't be handled in advance. At Santa Anita today, in the midst of the old Lucky Baldwin ranch, you hear the sound of 800 horses and the sound of many hammers getting ready for the biggest opening that racing has ever known.

Twenty Grand, Cavalcade, Equipoise, Head Play and some 2,000 other horses expected here in the course of the 53 racing days? There have been stable and entry requests for nearly 4,000 horses, which sounds more like a cavalry charge than anything else. But eliminations will take care of this.

Twenty Grand Moving Along. The arrival of Equipoise added further interest, but at this point Twenty Grand is the main show and will be until Cavalcade blows in from South Carolina.

Bill Brennan, trainer for Mrs. Payne Whitney's stable, is quite keyed up about Twenty Grand. "The old boy is coming along better than I thought he could," says Brennan. "You get the idea that he is keen to get back in competition and I like the way he works and looks. He can still step at his old speed and he still has his cunning about him."

The Big Train looks as well in training as he ever looked. Just how he will go into training at once, Bill Brennan expects to start Twenty Grand at least four times before the $100,000 race comes off, and Equipoise will get about the same going against the Red Devils.

Then Toronto drafted Kelley and Chapman," Landis remarked significantly. Dressen's testimony was exactly in line with that introduced in quotations from newspaper files, saying that he denied having told a Memphis writer he would draft Kelley. He admitted discussing the pitcher among ball players.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(AP)—
 Cotton eased off today under scant liquidation promoted by the lack more liberal or aggressive demand and the easier ruling of the market. March contracts sold from 12.61 to 12.52 in the late morning and closed at that figure, the general market barely steady. Net declines of 6 to 10 points.

Early offering through houses and foreign connections were fairly taken by trade buying, and worked back to about Saturday's closing quotations right after the close. The demand tapered off on the buy, however, and the market eased gradually under sustained demand.

This was coupled with some south selling or hedging and offerings were crased somewhat during the afternoon. The lowest prices of the were reached in the late trading December selling at 12.45 and M 12.53.

General business appeared to be stricted by uncertainty as to the able allotment for tax exempt should the Bankhead bill be proceed effective for 1935. Selling was active and the declines reflected effects of comparatively small a on a narrow market with local ob-

sers seeing little evidences of price traceable to cotton pool operation. Spot houses were credited with selling some October again today that delivery closing 18 points up
July compared with a difference of only 1 point in last Friday's late
ing. Exports today 7,369 bales, increasing 2,230,135 so far this season.

TARZAN AND THE LION MAN No. 80

Reminded by sight, Rhonda watched the gorilla fight with clubs, and battle-axes, talons and fangs. "They have freed Wolsey from the Tower," said one of the harem inmates, "and now he is leading The Maker's party against the king. They've never fought so fiercely."
